GREAT BRITAIN.

MARINE NEWS.

LONDON, November 30.—The steamers City of New York, Batavia and City of Washington, from New York, and the Caspian, from Portland, have arrived out.

POLITICAL.

The Democrats of this city have resolved to tender an invitation to Sir Charles Dilke to deliver a lecture in St. James Hall.

OBITUARY.

The Earl of Chesterfield died to-day of typhus fever. He contracted the disease about the same time and same locality as the Prince.

DISORDERLY MEETING.

Sir Charles Dilke addressed a meeting at Ballow last night. During the evening the audience became very disorderly. There was some fighting, and the meeting broke up in confusion.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

LONDON, December 1.—The morning bulletin from Sandingham states that there was an increase of the fever in the case of the Prince early in the evening yesterday, but as night advanced the fever again partially subsided. The Prince remained comparatively quiet through the remainder of the night.

U. S. FUNDED LOAN.

LONDON, December 1—The final settlement of the United States funded loan was made to-day without disturbing the money market, the bonds closing higher than ever before the loan, advancing to 90¼ gold. Because the settlement was anticipated, the portion of the loan unsettled at the opening of the books to-day was only twenty million dollars, and of this the taking of nearly fifteen millions was arranged in London, leaving less than six millions undisposed of, with the continent to hear from. There is no doubt but that the whole of the loan in European markets is taken.

PUBLIC UNEASINESS.

LONDON, December 1.—The death of the Earl of Chesterfield intensifies the anxiety for the Prince of Wales. The public uneasiness is so great as to have a depressing effect on the markets, which were generally dull and flat to-day. The Queen has returned to Windsor from Sandringham, where she has been watching by the bedside of the Prince.

SMALL-POX.

The small-pox in a very violent form is spreading in Plymouth and vicinity. The authorities are building special hospitals for those stricken with the disease, and have adopted stringent sanitary precautions.

FESTIVITIES ABANDONED.

The festivities usually given by the court on the 1st day of December, the birthday of the Princess of Wales, were abandoned.

MARINE NEWS.

LIVERPOOL, December 1.—The steamships Ohio, from Baltimore, and Washington, from New York, have arrived.

FRANCE.

EXECUTION OF CREMIEUX.

PARIS, November 30.—Cremieux, one of the four Communist leaders condemned to death by the court martial at Marseilles, was executed to-day. He was taken from his prison at an early hour this morning, conveyed a short distance outside of the walls and shot. He died bravely, refusing to be blindfolded. His last words were "Vive La Republique."

THIERS' MESSAGE.

PARIS, December 1.—President Thiers, in a message to the National Assembly, on the reopening of the session, referred to the treaty between France and Germany, a Commercial Convention with England, the military law and a general organization of the administration, but offers no suggestion as to constitutional changes, and makes no allusion whatever to political subjects.

ARRIVAL OF VON BEUST.

Count Von Beust, the Austrian Minister to England, arrived here to-day, en route to London.

GUARDING CORSICA.

PARIS, December 1.—The squadron detailed to guard the shores of Corsica is to remain at Ajaccio for an indefinite time. Three months' supplies have just been sent to it from Marseilles. It is supposed that its object is to prevent any attempt on the part of the Imperialists at a rising on the island.

UNEASINESS OF THE GOVERNMENT.

NEW YORK, December 1.—A Paris special states that the Government of France is very uneasy, and exercises the utmost vigilance. There is a great display of troops in Paris, and all the points are guarded by patrols every night, while police are stationed on every corner. The public mind is very unsettled, and the general impression is that the present status of affairs cannot last any length of time.

ROSSEL'S LAST WORDS.

The last words of Rossel to his Republican friends were: "If you do not before long crush the army, it will crush you. It has always been pretorian, and always formed a distinct party, whereas it should be national. Danger is pressing. The Republicans have abandoned the insurrection. You did not like the men of the 18th of March. I do not like them, but it is necessary to join in order to retain them."

BELGIUM.

DISTURBANCES RENEWED.

BRUSSELS, November 30.—To day being one of the fete days of the Communists, trouble was anticipated, and extraordinary precautions were taken by the authorities to prevent dangerous demonstrations in the present excited condition of the city. The Burgomaster issued a proclamation, in the morning, enjoining all good citizens to remain within their dwellings, forbidding out door demonstrations and declaring that illegal assemblages would be dispersed. Nevertheless, in the course of the day the recent disturbances were renewed. Monster crowds of opposite political parties collected in the streets, and there were frequent collisions between them. The police seemed to be unable or unwilling to disperse the rioters. In one instance a company of civic guards, sixty strong, were ordered to charge upon the people, but they reversed their muskets and refused to obey. The disorder continues. Mobs hold possession of the streets and the excitement is intense.

PORTFOLIOS DEMANDED.

BRUSSELS, December 1—Baron D'Anethan announced in the Chambers to-day that the King has demanded the portfolios of the Ministers, and they have accordingly resigned. The Chambers, therefore, would stand adjourned until the new ministry was formed. The resignation of the D'Anethan government had a most tranquilizing effect. The streets are free from crowds, the people seem to be satisfied, and the city is quiet.

Later.—The formation of the new Cabinet is instrusted to M. de Theax, the leader of the Conservative party.

AUSTRIA.

CELEBRATING THANKSGIVING.

VIENNA, December 1.—John Jay, Minister of the United States to Austria, gave a supper last night in celebration of Thanksgiving day, at which most of the Americans in Vienna were present. In some remarks upon the occasion Mr. Jay alluded to the present proud position of the republic and the impending fall of local corruptions before the assaults of a fearles press and honest men of all parties. The conclusion of the Trades Mark Convention between Austria and the United States was significant, he said, of the increasing interchange of manufactures of the two countries, to which the approaching International Exhibition in this capital would give an impetus by presenting American productions for the first time in Eastern Europe by the side of those of Western Asia. An allusion by the speaker to Count Andrassy was thrice cheered.

General Post also made an address, in which he discoursed at some length upon the subject of American antiquities.

GERMANY.

OBSERVING THANKSGIVING DAY.

BERLIN, December 1.—The Americans observed Thanksgiving yesterday in an appropriate manner. Special divine service in the morning was well attended. In the evening a dinner was given at the Hotel de Rome.

THE ARMY BUDGET.

In the Lower House of the Diet yesterday the triennial army budget was passed to a second reading by a small majority. The items of expenditure were sharply criticised, and many pronounced them extravagant, and it looked for a time as if the budget would be rejected, the opposition being strong and determined. But the Minister warned the House in the most significant manner that it should prepare for the future, that France contemplates revenge for her defeat, and would seek it as soon as the indemnity was paid. The only safety for Germany was in her army, and that should neither be weakened nor disabled.

PARLIAMENT CLOSED

BERLIN, December 1.—The German parliament closed its sessions to-day.

EXECUTION OF FRENCHMEN.

The German military authorties at Epernay, executed two Frenchmen who killed a German sentinel.

CUBA.

ARRIVAL OF VALMASEDA.

HAVANA, November 30.—Captain General Valmaseda arrived in this city on Tuesday evening.

CHAPLAIN REMOVED.

The chaplain of the cemetery which was entered by the medical students has been removed. The city is quiet.

THE MEDICAL STUDENTS.

NEW YORK, December 1.—A Havana special says that the bodies of the executed students were refused to be given to their parents. The students sentenced to the chain gang have been working in the streets with criminals since yesterday. The father of one of the former died from grief, and the mothers of two others are insane.

SPAIN.

VALMASEDA TO BE REMOVED.

MADRID, November 30.—It is said that the government has resolved to remove Captain-General Valmaseda from the Governorship of Cuba, and that 30,000 fresh troops are to be despatched to the island.

EAST INDIA.

CHOLERA.

BOMBAY, December 1.—Cholera in its worst form is raging with great violence in the city of Delhi.

BY MAIL.

A SOCIETY has just been formed in Rome for the manufacture of beet root sugar, with a capital of $2,000,000.

IT is stated that Isabella, the ex-Queen of Spain, is about to take up her residence for the Winter at Malta.

BERLIN boasts of not less than twenty women physicians, who have acquired reputation and independence in their profession. Most of them are of the homeopathic and eclectic school of medicine.

DURING the present year twelve Swiss guides have been lost by climbing the Alps—a larger number than has been lost, it is said, in any one year since 1853. Seven of them perished from avalanches, and three from falling into crevasses.

BISMARCK is reported recently to have expressed more desire to meet and talk with General Sherman than with any American alive. He considers Sherman more than any of our soldiers, a man of great military genius and inexhaustable resources.

TOUCHING the rumored marriage of Gambetta with a Mlle. Andoy, daughter of an ex-Prefect, it is stated that the negotiations have been unfavorably postponed, owing to the fact that the lady has not yet been born. M. Andoy has three sons but no daughter.

A LONDON letter says that at least one-third, if not one-half, of the entire population of that city is in favor of a republican form of government in Great Britain. The spread of republican principles has been extraordinarily rapid in England during the last two years, and is now more rapid than ever.

MR. ASHBURY has under way a new yacht, by the builder of the Cambria, which he means, in compliment to his American friends, to call the Columbia. The model is, it is said, a splendid one, and she will be, it is anticipated, one of the fastest cutters afloat. Her proposed dimensions are—beam, 14 feet 4 inches; length from stem to stern-post, 69 feet; she will draw 10 feet 9 inches of water.

HIS SERENE HIGHNESS of Lippe-Detmold has taken into his august head to cancel all game laws without the consent of the Chamber, and to cut off his subjects from the pastime of shooting the hares and rabbits within his dominions. His Serenity having no army to enforce his decrees, because he has loaned all his soldiers to Prussia, tried first the experiment of detailing 20 policemen to protect his preserves. This proving a failure, he invited the 55th Prussian Regiment to come to his aid, promising the officers thereof excellent shooting in return for the assistance of the men's muskets. On the very first day of the sport there was a collision between the troops and the peasantry, and numbers of the latter were arrested. The people of Lippe Detmold are furiously angry at what they regard as a piece of petty tyranny, and are going to the Reichstag for redress. They will probably get it, for it seems to be the best opinion that the little monarch has behaved in an entirely illegal way.

THANKSGIVING.

Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Thanksgiving day was observed by an almost total cessation of business, services in the churches and parade by the militia.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 30.—Thanksgiving day was generally observed in this city to-day, the streets wearing a Sunday appearance. No business was transacted in any of the Departments. There were religious services in many of the churches. At the Metropolitan Methodist church a chime of bells was dedicated. Among the audience were President Grant and family, Vice President Colfax and wife, and other prominent persons. The cost of the bells, which is about $14,000, was collected by the pastor's wife.

NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK, November 30.—Thanksgiving day was observed by all classes in this city and Brooklyn to-day. Places of business were closed and religious services were held in the churches, both Catholic and Protestant. The weather here has been unusually cold for this season. The prevalence of very high winds caused the streets to be almost deserted during the day.

BOSTON.

BOSTON, November 30.—The observance of Thanksgiving in this city has been mostly in-doors. There was a fierce northerly gale, clouds of dust, and the thermometer ranging twelve and fifteen degrees, making it one of the most uncomfortable days of the season.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, December 1.—Thanksgiving day was very generally observed yesterday. Business was almost entirely suspended, the public offices and institutions were closed, and religious services in nearly all the churches. There was a parade of the militia during the day.

BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, November 30.—There was a general observance of Thanksgiving Day in this city to-day. Business was suspended, public offices were closed, and services were held in all the churches.

MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, November 30.—Thanksgiving Day was generally observed and business suspended.

Parisian Dresses for the United States.

Our fair friends may be well be on the tiptoe of expectation for the arrival of the toilets mentioned in the following paragraph of the Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph. The writer says:

"The fact is, that although French ladies refrain, for the present, from spending money on dress, there is a greatly increasing trade in dresses for exportation, chiefly to the United States. Those who want to be au fait as to the latest fashions in costly millinery of all kinds must get an introduction to one of the wholesale Paris houses. I was shown, the other day, at one of these establishments, cases which, together, contained no fewer than four hundred ladies morning dresses and evening toilets, the average price of each being nearly £60 in English money. Before they are sold, freight, insurance, commission, and something respectable in the way of profit for those who send the goods across the Atlantic will have to be added. Some of these toilets, not yet packed, were shown me, and certainly they merit a more detailed description than I am able to give them. Several of them struck me as particularly handsome and in exquisite taste. They were chiefly of corded silk, so stiff in texture, that, like the dresses of the last century, they might stand upright by themselves. The colors were chiefly maroon, deep sea green or very light pink. The skirts were trimmed with flounces of the same, with very large plaits, between which were large silk bows, also of the same color. For a full half yard behind and about half that width in front, the flounces were bound with the same material. The tunics were nearly all made of China crape, with embroidered flounces, which had a narrow fringe a shade lighter than themselves. The tunics were round in front, the sides being cut in long, pointed ends and tied together behind with bows of moire ribbon of a shade to suit the color of the dresses, with fringe to match. The corsage of each dress was also of crape, cut square, the vests being made of the same colored silk as the dress, with bands of white or gray embroidery around the neck. The sleeves came only to the elbow, and were finished off to suit the tunic. The dresses, as I was told, were designed by a well known master-hand in Paris, and were made by some of the very best milliners that could be found here. No French customers could at present be found for toilets so expensive.

CALIFORNIA emigrants have a summary way of disposing of murderers. A party of 500 were encamped near Council Bluffs recently, when one of their number murdered a young herder. When the news of the deed reached the camp, search was made for the murderer. It was found that he had been arrested and taken before a magistrate. An emigrant tersely describes what followed: "We, the 500 emigrants, quietly marched to the justice's court and demanded the prisoner. They refused to give him up. We, the 500 emigrants, took him, tried him, condemned him, and hung him on the same tree he had murdered his victim under. 'Farewell, vain world,' were his last words, as the mule walked away and left him there. We, the 500 emigrants, followed the mule."

—W. D. Wallach died yesterday morning at Culpepper, Va., aged about fifty-eight years. He was formerly proprietor and editor of the Washington Evening Star.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

THREE PER CENTS CALLED IN.

WASHINGTON, Nov 30, 1871.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE AND DEPARTMENT REPORTS.

Nearly all the reports of heads of departments and chiefs of bureaus are completed. The President's message is finished and will be read at the cabinet meeting to-morrow. The reports will be sent to the press, as heretofore, in advance of their delivery to Congress, but not to be published until that time. The President's message, being in manuscript, will be telegraphed. The President and the heads of departments give no intimation whatever of its contents.

WASHINGTON, December 1, 1871.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

It was said this afternoon by a gentleman prominently connected with the administration that we have no quarrel with the Spanish authorities, and that the return of the North Atlantic squadron to Cuban waters was from prudential considerations only. The Government will hereafter and until a better condition of things shall exist in the island of Cuba keep a strong naval armament in Cuban waters. While this will have no hostile significance, it is designed to be an intimation to Spain that if that power is so weak as to be unable to secure peace and good order in that island in case of an insurrection or other grave public disturbance, this fleet will be used in such case for the protection of American citizens and their interest in Cuba, and if needs be to the full extent of the power of the Government.

REPORT OF POSTMASTER GENERAL.

The Postmaster General this afternoon commenced sending to distant points copies of his annual report. He enclosed a note to publishers, depending on their honor not to print the report in advance of its delivery to Congress. He will again recommend the abolition of the franking privilege, and ask for legislation to relieve the department from delay and embarrassment in readvertising proposals for carrying the mails in cases where there have been deceptions and failures by "straw bids," and to make provisions for giving the contracts to the lowest responsible bidders.

THE NAVY.

The report of the Secretary of the Navy will recommend more liberal appropriations by Congress than those of last year, they being insufficient for an effective force —not more than thirty or forty of the vessels being now afloat out of one hundred on the list, exclusive of fify iron clads, nearly all of which are laid up and out of service. The Secretary read the proof slips of his report to-day.

CABINET MEETING.

There was no mention whatever made at the cabinet meeting to-day concerning the events at Havana, nor has any recent intelligence been received from that quarter.

THREE PER CENTS CALLED IN.

The Secretary of the Treasury issued an order to the Assistant Treasurer at New York calling in one million and a quarter of the three per cent. certificates.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The internal revenue receipts for to-day were $1,071,164; for November $9,641,827; for the fiscal year to date $57,298,981.

ABSENT.

Secretaries Boutwell, Belknap and Delano, were the only members absent from the cabinet meeting to-day.

BOSTON.

Destructive Hurricane.

BOSTON, December 1.—A special dispatch to the Traveller from Halifax says a hurricane visited the northern side of the Island of Cape Breton, on the night of the 27th ult., doing immense damage to houses, barns, trees and shipping. The gale began at eight o'clock and lasted until five o'clock next morning. The tide was four feet higher than ever known before. The public wharf at Port Hood was swept away, and in the villages houses were blown down. A number of vessels anchored at Port Mulgrave, dragged their anchors and passed out of the strait to the sea. A Bermudian brig, the Jabez, from Charlottetown, was wrecked on Fox Island, and only one man was saved. Ten schooners were wrecked in the strait of Canso. It is feared that there has been considerable loss of life by the gale.

RAILROADS.

Toledo, Peoria and Warsaw.

PEORIA, ILL., November 30.—The Toledo, Peoria & Warsaw Railroad have opened their new line to Burlington, and cars are now running through from Columbus, Ohio, to Burlington, Iowa, without change.

CHICAGO TO ST. PAUL.

MILWAUKEE, December 1.—Arrangements have been made for a through passenger train from Chicago to St. Paul, via Milwaukee, without change of cars. The first train will start from Chicago as soon as the bridge across the Mississippi at Winona is completed, which will be about the 10th of December. Large and commodious mail cars have been constructed for the train, giving the people of the Northwest mail facilities equal to any in the country.

THE WEATHER.

Hudson, N. Y.

HUDSON, N. Y., November 30.—The steamer Vanderbilt is ice bound opposite this city. The prospect is that navigation will be closed above this city to-night. It is intensely cold. Ice is forming rapidly.

QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, December 1.—The following vessels are reported ashore at different points, caught in the ice by the extraordinary cold weather: The Pomona, Aberdeen, Widmillan, Corsica and others in danger. No steamer dare venture to their assistance, and it is feared that the crews will suffer, as the weather continues very cold. Canoes and men are being sent from here by special train to rescue them.

MILWAUKEE.

Water Works.

MILWAUKEE, November 30.—The embargo heretofore placed upon the city finances, preventing the issue of more bonds until the outstanding bonded debt had been reduced to five hundred thousand dollars, has at last been raised. The City Comptroller last night made his report to the Common Council, giving the welcome intelligence that the bonded debt had been reduced to less than half a million, whereupon it was ordered that one hundred and fifty bonds of a thousand dollars each at once be issued as the first instalment for the city water works.

CANADA.

Marine Disasters.

GODERICH, ONT., December 1.—The gunboat Prince Alfred has arrived from Georgian Bay. She reports the schooner Gold Hunter ashore in Winfield Bay, and thinks she can be got off in the spring. She also found the wreck of the tug Lewis, and reports her engine and boiler in twelve feet of water.

NEW YORK, December 1, 1871.

"BLACK FRIDAY" TRANSACTIONS.

In the suit of Davis against Fisk and others, in reference to the "Black Friday" transactions, a verdict has been rendered for plaintiff.

TREASURER SPINNER'S REPORT.

Treasurer Spinner's report of Secretary Boutwell's recent action states that notwithstanding the unfavorable circumstances at the time of putting the five per cent. loan on the European market, it has all been taken at favorable rates, realizing one hundred cents on the dollar, while the French loan put on the market at the same time realized only eighty cents. He favors the payment of interest on our bonds in foreign countries, where such bonds are taken, and believes if this system is adopted, the remaining loans of four and a half per cent. and four per cent. will soon be disposed off in Europe at par. He devotes considerable space to the refutation of the charges made against him by the newspapers of New York, which had been previously published. He also suggests the appointment of a third Comptroller to audit and settle the agency accounts. He urges an increase of salaries, to secure competent clerks.

THE BIBLE IN THE SCHOOLS.

The principal of the Hunter's Point school this morning obtained duplicate keys, opened the doors, called the scholars to order and commenced reading the Lord's prayer, when a disturbance ensued, which was only quelled by calling in the police. Seven pupils were expelled and one sent to the station house.

ICE BOUND GRAIN.

It was stated at the Produce Exchange to-day that the grain ice bound on the canal was worth at least half a million, and there is no chance of a resumption of navigation this season. The detention of the grain will chiefly affect the shippers, who will have to wait till spring for money, except when advances are obtained.

HALL'S CASE.

Mayor Hall has not been arrested, and the Sheriff denies the receipt of any papers in connection therewith, or any knowledge of the issuance of an order of arrest. The Mayor stated to-day that he had not been officially informed of the action of the Committee of Seventy, and declined to speak on the subject of resignation.

CONNOLLY CONFESSES.

The Tribune states that Connolly yesterday prepared a full confession of all the transactions of the ring, and that three of Tweed's bondsmen, including Hugh Hastings, of the Commercial Advertiser, have signified their intention to withdraw.

MARINE DISASTERS.

The bark Chrysless sunk at Port Joli, and several of the crew were lost. Several of the survivors will die. Eight bodies from another sunken vessel have been picked up on the ice. A terrible storm was raging yesterday at River Du Loupe, and other fatalities are expected.

POOR CONNOLLY.

Connolly is stated to have cried like a child when he was taken to jail. He lacks four hundred thousand dollars bail. Several friends called yesterday, but none went the necessary bonds.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Ward C. Pardee, a well known physician of Brooklyn, has been committed to jail, charged with defrauding Caleb B. Kneval of five hundred dollars, while rumor speaks of his expending $25,000 on another woman than his wife.

FISK-MANSFIELD.

The argument in the Fisk-Mansfield case was heard to-day before Judge Brady, the court reserving a decision upon the point whether the injunction preventing the publication of Fisk's letter should be vacated.

JURORS TO BE HEARD.

Judge McQuinn will hear the jurors in the cases of Davis againt Fisk, on Saturday a week as to what parties endeavored to influence the verdict.

CONNOLLY IN DESPAIR.

Ex-Controller Connolly begins to despair of securing bail, and the Sheriff thinks there is no possibility of such an event. Wm. Bradley offered himself to-day as security for $50,000.

TWEED'S BONDSMEN.

Three of Tweed's bondsmen signified their intention to withdraw their names from the bond. If others are not secured he will share the fate of Connolly.

PRESENCE OF REPORTERS NECESSARY.

Excise Commissioner Pyburn, of Brooklyn, declines to show his accounts to the reform committee except in the presence of reporters.

BONDSMAN RETIRED.

One of the bondsmen of Thomas Fields, Mr. F. Debarry, has retired, and Wm. Florence has been accepted in his stead.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR.

The rumor that James W. Booth is to succeed General Jones as postmaster appears to be unfounded.

THE COLLECTORSHIP.

General Chester A. Arthur, the newly appointed Collector of the port of New York, assumed his office at 9:30 A. M. to-day.

COLD WEATHER.

There was skating on several ponds in this vicinity yesterday and considerable ice has formed in the docks on the river.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

This forenoon the Pennsylvania railroad took possession of the Jersey roads, recently leased to it.

ARRIVED.

The steamer Algeria, from Liverpool, has arrived.

A Horrible Murder.

On Wednesday afternoon about six o'clock, a frightful murder was committed in Baltimore. A blind peddler named Frank Batty, attacked and almost chopped to pieces with a hatchet, a woman with whom he had been intimate for many years, and who was landlady of a house of bad reputation. He was standing in front of the fire with his arm around her waist when he began his murderous attack on her. Three women who were in the room ran screaming to the police station, from whence the officers hastened in time to meet the blind man, reeking with blood, on his way to give himself up. He had chopped the back part of her head quite off, so that the brain protruded, cut her throat from behind the ear to the windpipe, so nearly severed the left hand at the wrist that it only hung loosely by the sinews, and deeply gashed her right hand. Yet the miserable wretch was not dead, and was still alive late on Wednesday night, although there was no chance of her recovery. The blind man said that he had killed Fanny Cole because she had gotten all his money and given him an incurable disease, and now that he had had his revenge he was satisfied. Of course he is in close confinement.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE—The attendance on Thanksgiving was very good, and seemed to be well appriciated. Last evening Mr. Mathew's took a benefit. The audience was not as large as we wished for, yet considering all things, the extreme weather and following of a holiday, will somewhat alleviate any disappointment he may have felt. Matinee this afternoon, and last appearance this evening.

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—The Thanksgiving matinee at this house was crowded, Mr. Riggs being in excellent humor, rendering his Irish characters with a most pleasing effect. In the evening "Shin Fane" was repeated to a full house. Last evening Mr. Riggs labored under a very great disadvantage, that of having a severe cold. The house was a fair one, and Mr. Riggs' efforts to honor were duly appreciated by the house. Matinee this afternoon, "Shin Fane" will be repeated, and last performance to-night. We hope to see the house crowded.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The entertainments given during the past week at this "model little temple" by "Happy Cal Wagner's Minstrels" have been better patronized than any minstrel troupe that has passed through Pittsburgh for some time. It has been crowded nightly, and we can promise our neighboring cities that a rare treat is in store for them. Everyone seems delighted, and who should not, with such men as Wagner, Fox, McCallister, Carter and Clapham. The troupe is immense, and thoroughly refined in all their songs and dances, and we advise all to pay them a visit, as to-night they give their last performance in the city. There will be a matinee for ladies and children at half past two this afternoon.

SACRED CONCERT.—The grand Sacred Concert at St. Paul's Cathedral, on Thanksgiving evening, for the benefit of the choir of the Cathedral, was eminently successful. The audience, though not as large as was expected, was select and discriminating, and fully appreciated the rendition of the high order of music embraced in the programme. The solo in "Dixit Dominus" was rendered by Mr. Roe in a superb manner, and would have called forth a hearty applause, had applauding been in order. Mr. Roe has few peers as a baratone. "Juravit" quartette and chorus, and "Dominus a destris," trio, by Miss Henne, and Messrs. Cargo and Benitz, was admirably performed, as was also "Judicabit," solo and chorus, Mrs. Boehm as soloist. The "Gloria:" by Misses Foley and O'Brien was alike creditable to these young ladies. There were other performances we would be pleased to particularize, but space prevents. The Quoniam solo by Mr. J. Benitz was finely executed. Mr. B. has a rich bass voice, and sang with much ease and grace the most difficult passages in "Quoniam," one of Rossini's master-pieces. "Tantum Ergo," composed by Eder MacGonnigle, Esq., leader of the choir was the gem of the evening, Miss Henne as soloist. This composition has been pronounced by exacting critics, as a brilliant effort. The violin solo with organ accompaniment by Professors Manning and Nichols was of a very high order, and held the audience spell-bound through to the end. Altogether the concert both artisticaly and financially, was a success.

GEORGIA MINSTRELS.—This popular and only "colored" minstrel troupe, will give three performances at Masonic Hall, commencing on Tuesday next.

Mrs. Woodhull at Library Hall.

Mrs. Victoria Woodhull appeared at Library Hall last evening, and there were present to hear her perhaps three hundred persons, generally of the male persuasion, with just a sufficient sprinkling of the fairer element to relieve the monotony. She appeared upon the stage shortly after eight o'clock, and the audience then saw before them a figure of medium height and of graceful proportions, modestly and neatly arrayed in a suit of black, set off with a plain linen collar and small silk scarf of quiet colors. The countenance was more that of a girl, fair and full, and regular as a Grecian model, dark, flashing black eyes, and all rimmed in with a mass of light brown, bushy hair, which was pushed backed carelessly and fell down to the shoulders in wavy tresses, altogether a stage presence, very prepossessing, and not excelled even by the most popular of our female lecturesses, Anna Dickinson.

The lecture was not on social topics but a dry, abstruse, labored argument in favor of woman suffrage, which proved to have a powerful soporific influence upon many of her auditors—conspicuous among whom was a brother journalist, representing a German contemporary—not the Freiheits Freund—who had the audacity to go off into dreamland right under her eyes, and to send back pleasant echoes in the way of snores His noddings at length were observed by the audience and they with one accord broke forth into a round of applause, stamping and laughter, which being repeated several times had the effect of recalling him to duty and awakening the drowsy in other parts of the hall. The lecturess continued, however, unmindful of this interruption, and at last drew to a close,—after being several times hissed and again applauded. She read from a printed pamphlet and after closing the last page, all the while speaking in a nervous, frightened way, and with a stagy style, she suddenly stepped out from the stand, and assuming a more natural tone, remarked, "And now a word for myself." (And all the people were in expectation.) "As I was coming to Pittsburgh I picked up a paper and read that the virtuous editor advised you not to come here, to-night. [Applause.] All I have to say is I'm glad you have in your city a modern Christ to teach the people," and then she disappeared.

In all her discourse there was nothing at which offense could be taken, and if her record could have been blotted out there was nothing—save in its dullness—to make this lecture unprofitable or unpleasant.

Jewel Casket Initial Note Paper

This new and novel method of putting jewelry and certificates for valuable ladies watches in boxes of French note paper, that is being introduced by Messrs. Gildenfenney & Hess, is meeting with universal favor. The manner in which it is done is as follows; Every box contains two quires of French paper and envelopes to match, and a present worth from sixty cents to one hundred and twenty dollars. In addition to this in every one hundred boxes there is a certificate for an article worth twenty-five dollars. In every five hundred boxes there are certificates for five articles worth twenty-five dollars and one solid gold hunting cased ladies watch worth sixty-five dollars. And in every thousand boxes there are certificates for ten articles worth twenty-five dollars each and one fine solid gold hunting cased ladies watch worth one hundred and twenty dollars. Messrs. Gildenfenney and Hess, booksellers and stationers, No. 45 Fifth avenue have the exclusive sale of this stationary, and we would advise an early call, as the supply at present is quite limited.

A "Boys'" Fraud.

Some of the boys have just now developed a new field for fraud, in which they are industriously working. The latest instance of their success came to light yesterday. Wednesday evening a small boy called at the Varieties, and presented Mr. Fred Ames with an order for $60, purported to be drawn by Messrs. O'Neil and Rook, of the Dispatch, in favor of W. A. Stroup. The youth told an ingenious and very plausible story as to how he came by the order, and so far succeeded in convincing Mr. Ames of its genuineness as to procure an advance of $25 upon it. Yesterday morning Mr. Ames presented the order, and found it to be a forgery. Knowing his victimizer, he at once put the case in the hands of the police, who last evening were on the track of the young rascal.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

David Hollinger stands a good chance of going up to Claremont for ninety days, which he will have to do if he does not settle a fine of $50 and costs imposed by Mayor Callow for insulting two colored women and afterwards two white women on the street in Allegheny on Thanksgiving.

Hugh Hannon made information before Mayor Brush, charging William Hannon with aggravated assault and battery. The accused is charged with striking the prosecuter with a shovel, knocking him down and injuring him severely. The defendant was arrested and held for a hearing on Monday.

BREVITIES.

ALLEGHENY PRIMARIES this afternoon between 3 and 7 o'clock.

REPUBLICANS of the different wards of Pittsburgh and Allegheny should attend their primary meetings this afternoon.

THE stockholders of the Masonic Fund Society will hold their annual meeting at Masonic Hall, Fifth avenue, on Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

OVER seven hundred persons visited the Art Gallery on Thanksgiving Day to see Rothermell's grand historical painting of the Battle of Gettysburg.

FIFTY-TWO turkeys, with various other articles, too numerous to mention, were devoured by the inmates of Dixmont Hospital on Thanksgiving Day.

THE following gentlemen are candidates for Common Council in Second ward, Allegheny: A. Leggate, T. F. Grubbs, J. Taggart, Jr., J. White, Alfred Slack, J. Ashworth, W. Tate, J. E. Strickler and Isaac Rigby. Election this afternoon at 3 and 7 P. M.

THE "Thalia Liebhaber Theater Gesellschaft" of Allegheny observed Thanksgiving Day by a theatrical performance and dance at the German Masonic Hall. The audience was large and fashionable, consisting of our most respectable German citizens.

A SLIGHT FIRE occurred Thursday evening in Mellon's new buildings opposite the custom house. A coal from the stove fell out upon the floor and ignited some shavings. An alarm was struck and the department called out, but they did not go into service, as the flames were extinguished with a few buckets of water.

THE Trustees of the Cincinnati Water Works have awarded to W. H. Brown & Co., of this city, on their bid, a contract for thirteen hundred tons of coal for the Front street works, to be delivered in eight weeks, at four dollars and forty-five cents per ton; and for seven hundred tons for the Hunt street works at five dollars per ton, to be delivered in two weeks.

COLONEL E. J. UNGER, Superintendent of the Union Depot Hotel and Secretary and Treasurer of the Keystone Hotel Company, is converting the open space between two wings of the Union Depot Hotel building into rooms for an office and Ladies' Ordinary. They will be fitted up in excellent style, just the way the Colonel does everything he takes in hand. He is great on improvements, and always makes them pay.

THE new train of cars which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has given to Mr. John Routh, conductor of the Wall's Accommodation, is brilliantly illuminated with gas, during the night trips, the effects of which is very fine. The windows in the doors are very large, and passengers have a full view of the train during its whole length. When illuminated, the train seems like one of the ample corridors in Aladdin's castle.

Mellor & Hoene's Musical Emporium.

It may not be generally known that Messrs. Mellor & Hoene, dealers in music and musical instruments, are now offering to the public a Piano manufactured expressly for them and bearing their own name into market. It is a piano which, in excellence and durability, stands with equal superiority to any manufactured. There has been a demand, and it has been seriously felt by many, to have a piano equal to the best, and yet within the range of a reasonable price. Awake to every interest, Messrs. Mellor & Hoene have at length succeeded in obtaining an instrument which they are now introducing into our market, of the best of material, and with all the late improvements combined, including the new over-strung bass, Agraffe treble and full metalic frame, with wooden bearings. These pianos have been tested and are acknowledged equal in power, clearness and brilliancy of tone with those of other manufacturers and at a far less cost. The prices are at such extreme low figures as to bring them within the reach of all who may desire one. Messrs. Mellor & Hoene are practical musitions, and have had years of experience, hence they do not hesitate to announce to those who are desirous of purchasing a piano, that they can, and do, offer such liberal inducements that will give their house the precedence. The house is proverbially known as a first-class and reliable one, and the merits of their claims should be acknowledged. Their warerooms are No. 53 Fifth avenue, nealy opposite the Opera House.

THERE is one thing we earnestly desire to impress upon the minds of all voters, and that is to cast a vote for no man, at the coming election who doesn't drink Pier, Dannals & Co's Cream Ale—We want honest men in office.

A New Enterprise.

Pittsburgh is noted for its enterprise in the way of the manufacture of iron, steel and glass, and is known not to be behind other cities in all business matters. A new enterprise is, however, likely to be inaugurated soon which will add to the reputation of the "Iron City." Heretofore, the tile now so generally used in floors of offices and stores have been imported at heavy cost, and, we believe, no successful attempt has been made in this country to manufacture them. Mr. David Hutchison, the well-known brick manufacturer of the Sixth ward, has taken the matter in hand, and from his well-known business enterprise, success may almost be assured. Mr. Hutchison, at great expense, has imported several presses, a supply of dies and several mills, for the manufacture of tiles of all shapes and sizes, and from experiments made he believes that he can open a competition with the foreign goods of this kind which will be of great advantage to this city and the public. The enterprise deserves success.

DAILY GAZETTE.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny City and Allegheny County.

GAZETTE BUILDING:
Corner of Sixth Avenue and Smithfield Street.

SATURDAY, DEC. 2, 1871.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1871

FOR MAYOR—B. W. MORGAN.
FOR TREASURER—C. L. MAGEE.
FOR CONTROLLER—R. J. McGOWAN.

BONDS at Frankfort 97⅜@97⅞.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp, 46½.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 110⅜.

HON. R. W. MACKEY has returned home from Harrisburg.

VOTE only the straight Republican ticket on Tuesday.

SOUNDING their own requiem—Democrats tolling the bell.

TURN OUT, Republicans, and administer another rebuke to Democracy.

DO NOT be caught with the chaff thrown out by the Democracy in the shape of a reform ticket.

THE Democrats were out in force on Thanksgiving Day, tolling the bell in advance of their political defeat.

DON'T believe one of the many stories put in circulation concerning Mr. B. W. Morgan. They are all false and malicious.

WE never heard of such contemptible electioneering as that going on concerning our candidate for Mayor. It is base and malicious.

ON TUESDAY NEXT the citizens of Pittsburgh will decide whether Democracy shall hold the municipal reins for the next three years.

WE are informed that Blackmore's unfortunate dockets make strange revelations. Fines remitted from the very worst characters in the city.

LAST FALL the "reform" humbug was played on a large scale in the county, but it did not win; and now in minature form the same game comes up in the municipal contest. Let the snake again be scotched

OF COURSE R. J. McGowan, Esq., candidate for re-election to the position of City Controller, will go through with flying colors on Tuesday, as there is no opposition to him from any quarter. He is a most worthy gentleman, and well qualified for the duties of the office.

WE WOULD suggest to the Hon. the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas that they postpone the appointment of ward overseers until Monday, which will give all the districts an opportunity of suggesting proper persons, who will be able to attend to the important duties.

WE understand that some of Blackmore's friends have been making up pools at the drinking houses and engaging in all manner of bets on Blackmore's election. Mr. Morgan's friends are not of that character, we are happy to state, and our Democratic neighbors enjoy a monopoly in this line.

WE desire to put on record our decided preference for Mr. Chris. L. Magee as City Treasurer. He is a young man of scrupulously correct habits and rare financial ability. His long service in the offices of City Controller and Treasurer has fully fitted him for the mastery of the details of the municipal business. There is no more competent or trustworthy citizen in the community, and we look for his election by a large majority.

WE earnestly hope that no Republican will remain away from the polls on Tuesday next. Don't fail to cast your vote for the party candidates, because of some personal grievance. If our candidates are sober, honest and capable, it is all that we ought to require. We cannot always have a ticket, that will personally please every voter. Any public man of decided and energetic character must necessarily make enemies. He cannot do his whole duty, and please everybody.

NOTHING can be preferred against the Republican candidate for City Treasurer, C. L. Magee, Esq., to detract from his merits or to win a single vote from him. He is a gentleman of high character and unblemished reputation, and having been born and raised in the city, is very generally known and esteemed. He is a thorough accountant, and a long clerical experience in the offices of the City Controller and City Treasurer has afforded him full knowledge of the business and financial affairs of the city. A sterling and active Republican and an honest and capable citizen, he deserves election by an almost unanimous vote. No Republican having the welfare of the city at heart will fail to cast his vote for Mr. Magee on Tuesday next.

WE HAVE HEARD some of those grumblers who are in the habit of thinking that whatever is is wrong, grievously malign the Secretary of the Navy for his "unexampled severity" in dealing with the naval cadets at Annapolis, and the President for sustaining the action of the Naval Minister of his Cabinet. "Boys will be boys you know, and it is only some of their mischief resulting from healthy exuberance of animal spirits," is a favorite style of putting it with such people, but, constitutional fault-finders as they are, we think that, perhaps, if they were told what a little of this boyish exuberance really was, they might acquit Mr. Robeson of the charge they make against him. What, for example, do they think of young gentlemen who force weak lads, who are in their power, to drink a beverage composed of castor oil, mucilage, tooth-powder, quinine and ink, or, by way of variety, hang them out of a third story window by their heels until nearly dead? Or how, we venture to inquire, would they like to be members of the lower class, and, for that reason only, be forced to sit naked on a float in the river, with the certainty of being stoned by practiced marksmen every time they ventured to lift their heads above the water? Or, if orthodox, what would be their feelings if forced to kneel before a statue and pray for those who were at that very moment despitefully using them, by kicks and blows, and who were about to evilly entreat them by ducking them under the hydrant? Such were a few of the gentle pastimes of these poor innocent creatures who think they have been hardly used, and accuse the Secretary of not dealing with them as if they were gentlemen. For our part, we cry, bravo! to Mr. Robeson, and deeply regret that he can not thrust a strong hand in amongst the various colleges in the land as well as into the Naval Academy.

ALLEGHENY PRIMARIES.

The primary elections take place to-day in Allegheny for the municipal offices. In some of the wards the excitement runs high. The contests for the various positions will call out a large vote, as the nominations are pretty generally equivalent to an election. In the First ward the principal contest is for School Directors, the present Board, who are seeking a re-election, wish to erect a new school house on the swamp land in front of South avenue, whilst this measure is opposed on the grounds, first, that the ward does not need a new school building, and second, that in case one is to be built, the ground spoken of is not suitable for the purpose, nor centrally situated. The election will be closely contested, and as the issue is plainly before the voters a large vote will doubtless be polled. In the other wards the Mayoralty and Council are the most prominent questions. We will publish the result on Monday.

THAT INTERVIEW.

The scandalous falsehoods put in circulation during the past few days, tending to injure the character of Mr. B. W. Morgan, Republican candidate for Mayor of this city, by alienating friends, are simply monstrous. We did not think it possible for any one, having a particle of self respect, to engage in such base work. Finding it impossible to defeat our candidate by any fair means, our enemies have resorted to the most unheard of libels, and are engaged in spreading through the city the most outrageous and malicious reports of language used, and interviews had, that ever disgraced the fair name of any citizen. Nothing appears too base and malicious for the gossip of the hour, and groundless stories are fabricated and repeated from mouth to mouth, until we are almost ready to give up in despair of getting at the truth.

Among other things which are being spread through the city on the wings of scandal, is the report of the interview between His Honor, Mayor Brush and Mr. Morgan; and we deem it but simple justice to both parties, to give an unvarnished recital of the facts relating to this matter. Somebody wrote a letter to the Mayor, stating that Mr. Morgan had publicly boasted that "when elected, he would bring Mayor Brush and his clerk to their knees," and similar stuff. The Mayor sent for Mr. Morgan, who upon reading the letter, emphatically denied the truth of its contents, and demanded to know who its author was. The Mayor explained that he did not know the author, except that he was a resident of the Twenty-first ward. Mr. Morgan offered to face him and denounce his statements as false. After search, the writer of the letter could not be found, and it is currently believed that the name signed to it was a fictitious one. The letter was evidently written in order to create trouble and alienation between our worthy Mayor and Mr. Morgan. The latter assures us that there is not one word of truth in it, that he never in his life spoke disrespectfully of Mayor Brush, and feels deeply chagrined and mortified to think that any one could be so base and malicious as to state the contrary. We feel satisfied, that when the matter is fully explained, this effort to create trouble among friends, will prove a vain one.

"WHO IS TO BE THE TRAITOR."

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 29, 1871.

There is quite an inquiry for the man who can meet the wants of the Democratic party. The case is urgent and the means used show how desperate are the circumstances of the Democratic party. Montgomery Blair makes an open bid through an "interviewer," which seems to be an inclination of the drifting fortunes of a once powerful political organization.

It committed the unpardonable sin against the country in its time of extreme peril, and the people will not entrust it with power until it in some way, atones for its treachery.

Montgomery Blair sees all this, and confesses the utter hopelessness of their cause, and endeavors to prepare the way for an independent Republican candidate. He seems to be as indiscreet as his brother General F. P. Blair was, in publishing his celebrated Brodhead letter just prior to the holding of the Democratic convention in 1868.

The question propounded in political circles is "Who is to be the Traitor," that is to desert and carry over to the enemy a sufficient force to give victory to a party "which through its perfidy and treachery has so fallen under the wrath of a nation's retributive justice." From the earnestness of the Democratic leaders, in this search for a Republican who will go over to their camp, we may expect soon, to hear that they found some who are willing to be put in training. O. P. Q.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Among the encouraging signs of progress in the Christian Church, is the holding of a species of mass meetings to consider questions agitated inside of a denomination, or to promote the welfare of all the churches. These gatherings often take up matters that do not properly belong to the business of Conventions and Conferences, convened to consider the regular work authorized by their respective Church authorities. Frequently new educational and benevolent projects are set in motion by such bodies, and afterwards become a part of the working machinery of the denomination interested. Church Congresses are becoming an interesting feature in England and other places across the ocean, and more recently the attention of the churches have been called to the pleasant results of a Church Congress held at Nottingham, England. At this meeting ministers and laymen of different bodies participated, although called by the proper authorities of the Church of England, and presided over by the resident Bishop of the Diocese. At these Congresses prominent ministers and laymen, previously appointed, read papers upon certain subjects selected for consideration, after which comes a free and general discussion on the part of the ministers and laity. Something like this plan of Conventions have been successfully held by two or three leading denominations in this country, but the practice is not general, but, however, steadily growing in favor. We have been prompted to the foregoing by the reading of an able paper by the editor of The Churchman, commending the holding of meetings similar to the English Church Congresses, to give the clergy and laity an opportunity to discuss questions of interest, both theoretical and practical, in a free and general manner, which are to some extent outside of the proceedings of the diocesian and general Conventions. By this means persons of different schools can explain their views, and thereby attain a clearer understanding of each other's ideas and position. There is no doubt but much of the angularities may be rubbed off by mutual contract, and thereby lose some of their narrowness.

In Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's novel, "My Wife and I," she thinks there is one peculiarity of the professors of the Christian religion, at least of late years, not to arrange their system of education with any wise adaptation to having their young men come out of it Christians. She asserts in this they differ from other religionists. The Brahams educate their sons so that they shall infallibly become Brahams; the Jews so that they shall infallibly become Jews; the Mohammedans so that they shall be Mohammedans; but the Christians she argues teach their sons so that nearly half of them turn out unbelievers—professors of no religion at all.

The United Presbyterian of this city, in referring to the recent organization of a Young Ladies' Christian Association in New York city, to take care of the young woman who go to that place, asks if the Christians of the metropolis cannot so work their forces as to do what is universally Church work, without the aid of outside organizations.

The creed of the Iowa Disciples, just published, we presume expresses the sentiments of the entire body, comprising nine articles, namely: 1. The inspiration of the Holy Scriptures. 2. The Old and New Covenants. 3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ. 4. The Church as a Missionary body. 5. Divine agency necessary to Salvation. 6. A converted membership. 7. Personality and worth of the Holy Spirit. 8. Baptism for the remission of sins; provided it be preceeded by a change of heart. 9. The unity of the Church of Christ.

According to Brobst's German Almanac for the year 1871, the statistics of the Lutheran Church in America, are as follows: Ministers, 2,175; congregations, 3,826; communicants, 458,607.

The Advance very properly denominates the holding of the National Congregational Council at Oberlin, Ohio, the "New Departure," as this organization is to be a permanent institution in Congregationalism.

The Christian Observer thus defines baptize: "It means to assault; to let fall; to weigh down; to pierce; to hurl down; to surround; to press down; to rise above; to dip; to submerge; to trust; to blow; to strike; to proceed; to sink; to immerge; to imbathe; to plunge; to lower down; to immerse; to come on; to overturn; to bail up; to flood; to whelm; to pour; to souse; to bring down; to depress; to steep; to drench, and to duck." The Western Recorder (Ky.) retorts sharply, and asks the writer of the above in what way he was baptized. "Was he assaulted, let fall, weighed down; pierced, hurled down; surrounded, pressed down, risen above, (spare the English, dipped,) submerged, thrust, blown, struck, proceeded, (!) sunk, immerged, imbathed, plunged, lowered down, (not our fault,) immersed, come on, (don't feel offended,) overturned, bailed up, flooded, whelmed, poured, soused, brought down, depressed, steeped, drenched, or ducked?" It then proceeds to ridicate the writer in the Observer in the roughest style.

A Boston secular journal calls attention to the fact, speaking of the election of Rev. Dr. Howe to the Episcopate of the new diocese of Central Pennsylvania, that this is the ninth instance of the selection of bishops from clergymen who have been rectors of Boston churches during some portion of their ministry.

The project for a General Council of Yearly Meetings of the Society of Friends, was not favorably received by the Yearly Meeting of Indiana.

An elegant new Methodist Episcopal church was dedicated recently, at Port Washington, Long Island, by Bishop Ames. The entire edifice, with all its furniture, bell, books, cushions, etc., was the gift of John Wesley Harper, Esq., eldest son of John Harper, Esq., of the firm of Harper & Brothers, mammoth book publishers, when completed the day previous, was handed over to the trustees, free from all liabilities, to be used as a Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Harper built for himself and family a beautiful residence, two years ago, near that point, and seeing the need of a M. E. Church, generously built this one. An act like this speaks volumes in praise of the giver, and is worthy of emulation by others enjoying wealth.

THE architects have held a convention in Boston, and, among other papers read by the members, we specially notice one by Mr. Russell Sturgis, Jr., on the use of terra cotta in building. This material is burnt clay mixed with pulverized glass, earthen ware or fossil bones. It was used by the Egyptians, and afterward by the Greeks and Romans, and later still by the architects of the Middle Ages. The Ninevah statues and tables of terra cotta, with written engravings, remain to-day as sharp and clear as ever. Lately the composition has come into general use for fine buildings in London. Mr. Sturgis claimed for it a great deal of strength and durability; for a solid block, one foot square, will sustain a weight of 885 tons without cracking, and its cost is less than that of stone. But Mr. McArthur, of Philadelphia, thought terra cotta lacked certain qualities necessary for trustworthy work. It did not shrink evenly in baking, and a great deal of time was required for its preparation, and the blocks were necessarily too small. Some of the architects defended terra cotta, and some of them assailed it; nor do we see that the convention came to any authoritative decision upon the question.

IT really begins to seem as though there was no end to the wealth of our Pacific coast. California is noted for its gold and silver mines; its fruit is gigantic, luscious and perennial; the silk worm weaves its costly web on the leaves of thousands of its mulberry trees; cotton has found a home upon its soil; almost everything counted as valuable and belonging to the mineral kingdom is found among its mountains, and now a "fine vein of Carrara marble" recently discovered sends its citizens into ecstatic transports. "Art flourished under Grecian and Italian skies, and the same reasons exist for its cultivation here. The Carrara marble to carry on one branch of the fine arts is said to be within our reach," shouts an enthusiast. The locality where this new source of wealth is said to be found is somewhat vaguely described as being "near the south end of Pyramid Lake, on the Indian Reservation there, and about twenty-two miles from the railroad." Permission has already been obtained to open the quarry by an enterprising gentleman of Sacramento, and ere long California marble will be brought before the eyes of an anxious and expectant public.

THE sensitiveness of England and Russia with regard to their possessions in the East is now appearing in a new form. The Crimean war was begun, it will be remembered, for the ostensible purpose of protecting Turkey from Russia, though in reality to teach Russia that she must not continue her efforts to secure territory toward the south. Now, however, England finds that Turkey and its dependency, Egypt, may cut off her own communication with the east, and accordingly her sympathies are changing their direction. She finds that the interests of herself and Russia about the Black Sea and the Mediterranean are identical, provided that there can be such a division as to secure the freedom of the Suez Canal for England. It will be interesting to know what England will say about Russia's progress toward Hindostan by way of Central Asia. It may be that the doctors will disagree in the further east, while agreeing as to the remedies to be used in the case of Turkey and Egypt.

THE Philadelphia Ledger says: We see it published, and we suppose it is true, that all the bonds for the new funded loan for Europe are forwarded direct to Assistant Secretary Richardson in London, whose duty it is to deliver them as required by the syndicate, none being delivered until full payment is received. The Assistant Secretary in London announces that he has forwarded to the Treasury $7,000,000 of the 5-20s of 1862, and that he should probably send twenty millions more before the end of the month. The Secretary expects to have in possession the full hundred millions within three months from the issuing of their recall.

A SINGULAR enough circumstance (truth stranger than fiction,) has occurred in Massachusetts. About 35 years ago a man named Colburn ran away, leaving his wife and two children destitute. The mother and daughter died, the son struggled on, obtained an education, and is now a minister and Chaplain of the State Prison. He has never heard of his father, and supposed him dead. But suddenly there came a letter from the old gentleman; he is not dead in the least, but alive in Washington Territory, and quite rich. He also announced his intention of coming to Boston, where he hopes to spend the remainder of his days in "peace and plenty." The Boston Journal says that the Rev. Mr. Colburn is now daily expecting the arrival of his long absent father. This is the sort of thing which it would not surprise us to read in a novel, but in real life, it is not of the every day sort. The number of chaplains whose fathers ran away 35 years ago, and are now able to come back rich and repentant, must be small; but if any more such sires there be, let them read this paragraph, and start at once.

THE TRUE GROUND OF CONFIDENCE.

Whence comes that firm reliance, that absolute, undoubting faith in the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a remedy for indigestion, bilious disorders, intermittent and remittent fevers, which notoriously prevails in all parts of the United States? This confidence has been growing for twenty years, and it is still extending. It is not the result of credulity; it has not been engendered by any human device, but is the spontaneous and natural consequence of experience. What people see daily going on under their own eyes they cannot question. When families in unhealthy districts, that resort to this wholesome vegetable tonic as a preventive, escape periodical fevers, and their immediate neighbors, who neglect that precaution, are prostrated by the disease, how is it possible that the phenomenon should be without its lesson? In like manner when it is seen that obstinate cases of dyspepsia, of liver complaint, of constipation, of nervous weakness, and of general debility, yield to the operation of the famous remedy, how can even incredulity itself withhold its endorsement? Eye-witnesses of the salutary effects of the bitters are to be found in every civilized settlement on this continent. The thousands upon thousands who owe their restoration to health and strength, or their preservation from sickness to its extraordinary medicinal properties, are enthusiastic in its praise. The multitudes who recommend it to a neighborly way to their friends and acquaintances, as well as those who make public their estimate of its virtues, are always ready to state their reasons for the faith that is in them. They have all either felt or witnessed its beneficent operations.

Additional Testimony

OF THE

EXCELLENT QUALITIES

OF THE

Burke & Barnes'

FIRE PROOF SAFES.

[From the Pittsburgh Commercial.]

One of our bankers who has witnessed the effects of the great Chicago fire on the safes, so called fire-proof, informs us that a greater part of those which were directly in contact with the fire failed to protect the papers inside—that the safes already advertised as having withstood the fire were in most cases protected by vaults or covered by fallen debris, and thus kept cool. With this being the common result, it was with feelings of local pride that he examined the books and papers of Messrs. Rumsey, Williams & Co., No. 28 Chamber of Commerce, taken from a Burke & Barnes Safe of the old pattern, and found them in a state of PERFECT PRESERVATION, though fully exposed to the flames, while expensive Eastern and Cincinnati safes turned out their contents charred and unrecognizable. There is no reason why our city builders cannot make as good safes and bettter that those put up elsewhere, and no reason, except fashion, that our merchants should go to other cities for their safes.

ANOTHER BLAST FOR THE BURKE AND BARNES' SAFES.

It is not alone in Chicago these safes have so frequently been in actual conflagration and proved themselves to be fire proof in every particular, as will be seen by the following:

Messrs. Burke & Barnes, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN—This will certify that we had in our office when it was burned on the 31st of September last, one of your fire proof safes, and we are gratified to say that the safe proved satisfactory in every respect, preserving our books and papers as fully as could be expected under the circumstances.

Yours respectfully, C. D. HUBBARD, Sec'y.

TO ADVERTISERS.

THE

"United Presbyterian"

Offers unusual advantages as an advertising medium. It is a large, double sheet, Weekly, Religious and Secular Newspaper. It enters upon its Thirtieth Volume, January 4, 1872.

REASONS WHY

FIRST—The United Presbyterian is unsurpassed, if equaled, by any newspaper in the West.

SECOND—The United Presbyterian has a MUCH LARGER CIRCULATION than any paper published in the United Presbyterian denomination, and as large or larger, than any other religious paper published in this portion of the country.

THIRD—It goes into thousands of families weekly, many of whom take no other.

FOURTH—No advertisement of an objectionable kind will be inserted, and the space allotted to advertisements is limited.

FIFTH—The terms are very moderate in proportion to those charged by periodicals of scarcely half the circulation.

NOW IS THE TIME

To Make Arrangements to Advertise.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS, SUCH AS COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

The few composition which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, which have won for it a confidence in its virtues never equalled by any other medicines. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, which is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords in sudden attacks, and by its timely use.

Finance and Trade.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 1, 1871.

The local money market continues close, and there is really less expectation indulged of a return to easy times, than there was a month ago. The cold snap acts alike upon the flow of money and the flow of waters. Lenders are putting up rates again, or trying to do so, and but little paper of any kind will pass muster under ten per cent. and much higher rates are paid daily on four month's paper of prime credit. Short date loans upon Government bonds, or other approved collaterals can be made at 8@10 per cent.

The local stock market is inactive, but the better class of stocks are not pressed for sale at any material decline from the prices current when money was plenty. There are occasional transactions in Allegheny Valley 7-30 bonds at 94 and in Columbia oil stock at about $20. The decline in oil, and a falling, off in the daily production at the farm has had but slight effect on the price of the stock thus far, prices to-day $19,50 bid $20 asked.

The eastern markets are dull and in the main lower than on the 29th.

Government bonds, however, have advanced upon a declining gold and stock market and rate from ⅛ to ⅜ per cent. higher.

The railway list opened strong this morning but the closing quotations show an average decline of nearly one per cent.

Gold has been heavy and weak at 110⅜. Loans were made at from 3 to 5 per cent. for carrying. Daily clearances $46,000,000. Money was rather active to-day at 6@7 per cent. Governments have not been very active; 5-20s of '62, '64 and '65, old, and '68, new, advanced ⅛ per cent. Currency bonds declined ⅛ per cent. State bonds heavy, with small transactions. The stock market opened strong but became dull later in the day. The market was unfavorably affected by the activity in money. At the close prices were steady, but dealings were limited and devoid of any special feature.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 1, 1871.

APPLES—The market is steady and with a continued fair demand and comparatively light receipts, prices are stronger and higher; we now quote at $1,50@2,50 for common to medium and $3@3.50 for prime to choice. We understand that there has been some inquiry for shipment.

APPLE BUTTER—The receipts continue liberal, and with only a limited demand, the market is slow though prices are unchanged; fair to medium, 50@55, prime to choice, 60@65.

BEANS—In good supply and rather dull—may be fairly quoted at $2,00@2,50 per bushel; we occasionally hear of a small sale of choice at $2,75, but this is above the market at present.

BUTTER—There is a steady demand for the better grades with regular sales of prime to choice roll at 23@25. Common and medium butter quiet and unchanged.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4 cts; refined do. 4¼@4½; Pearls, 9½; Pots, 7½; Nitrate Soda, 4¼@4½.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is selling, in a jobbing way, at $4.50 per cwt.

BROOM CORN—Is reported quiet and unchanged; manufacturers generally are pretty well supplied, and in consequence there is not much inquiry at present. We continue to quote at 9@12 cts. per pound according to quality.

CARBON OIL—The market is quiet and unchanged; standard brands may be quoted at 20½@20¾ cts by the car load—usual advance for small lots.

CIDER—The arrivals have commenced to fall off, but with only a moderate demand, prices remain unchanged. $5@8 per bbl according to quality and condition.

CORN MEAL—Is very quiet and the demand is mainly of a retail character; may be quoted in small lots at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl; Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25@4,50.

CRANBERRIES—Jersey cultivated, $11@13 per bbl. Sackett's Belle Berries, $17.

Oats generally reported dull, and may be fairly quoted at 45@46 cts, for mixed to prime white by the car load. New ear Corn is quoted at 55@56 and shelled at 58@60; as noted in our last report, buyers generally refuse to pay any more for old than new as the latter is just as good for almost every purpose, excepting making corn meal, as the former. Rye is quiet—but little offering and there does not seem to be much inquiry for it; may be fairly quoted at 88@90. Barley is rather scarce and brewers generally are reported bearish, but there is no change whatever in prices; 83@85 for spring and 90@100 for fall.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 1, 1871.

The market continues firm though very quiet. Crude—spot or seller December, 10¾c bid; buyer first half next year, 12⅛c. Parker spot, $4.65@4.67; lines all 1872, $4,30; first half, $4.20. Refined—first half of December 21¾c; last half, 21⅞c. Some operators have been impressed with the belief for some days past that petroleum, particularly refined, was destined to do better before the close of the year, and the indications at present are that their expectations will be realized. Refined is lower now than it has been, if we are not mistaken, since 1867, and, furthermore, it is down to, if not below, the cost of production.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 1, 1871.

The metal market is steady and moderately active, with a fair volume of business in the aggregate, and prices are fully maintained. The arrivals both by river and rail are liberal, but with a steady consumptive demand, there is no accumulation of stock, the current demand is taking it as fast as it arrives, and that, too, at full prices. Standard forge irons are selling readily at $40, 4 mos with the usual difference for other grades.

In regard to manufactured iron, there is nothing particularly new or important. The mill owners had a meeting last week, but no change in prices were made; however, card rates are rigidly adhered to, and an early advance is generally expected.

Following is a partial report of the sales for the week:

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, December 1.—There is no important change in staple cottons; demand moderate and prices uniform. The cold weather caused an improved inquiry for woolens, which were held with a firmness unusual for the season, owing to the scarcity of raw material. There was a large movement in Cape Mestega and Australian wools, and the market has been cleared of these, while medium grades of domestic fleeces were extremely scarce and decidedly firmer. In the dry goods trade there is little movement expected until after the holidays beyond absolute necessities, nor is there any probability of a decline while raw materials command the present high prices. Printing cloths are relatively high at 7⅛c; prints steady at 11⅛c, and standard brown sheetings 12⅛@13c.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues cold and winterish; thermometer 22; wind in northwest. River falling steadily with 5 feet 3 inches in channel.

Argosy and Granite State arrived and departed. Carrie Brooks due last night.

The Juniata, Capt. C. L. Brennan, leaves for Cincinnati to-day without fail. She is an elegant and commodious side-wheeler, and offers superior accommodations to passengers.

The West Virginia, Capt. Donaldson, is the regular independent Monongahela river packet for to-day, leaving at 4 P. M.

Quite a number of tow boats have arrived from below within the past two days, and the cry is still they come.

The Monongahela and Allegheny rivers were reported stationary above yesterday

—The Indianapolis Journal says a suit is in progress before Judge Drummond, and a jury in the United States Circuit Court. It is the case of Frank Y. Batchelor, et al vs. the Evansville Cotton Manufacturing Company, and grows out of the following circumstances: The Swallow, which is the property of the plaintiffs, navigating the Ohio river, was carrying a cargo of goods to the defendant, when she ran upon an island in the river, and stove a hole in her hull. She was brought into port at Evansville, and claim for $2,360 salvage allowed, on both boat and cargo, the whole amount on which was paid by the owners of the boat. They now sue to recover from the manufacturing company, the pro rata amount chargeable against the cargo. The cargo was insured in a New York insurance company, and they are fighting the suit, for if the manufacturing company is compelled to pay it, they can recover that amount from the insurance company on their policy.

—Tuesday's St. Louis Democrat says: The folks on the bulkheaded steamer Henry C. Yaeger seem to care little whether she hits obstruction or not. She is watertight and bouyant. The Yaeger on her last down trip struck a flange of the wrecked steamer H. D. Newcomb, a hundred miles above Memphis, and injured the hull at the bow in such a manner that water immediately rushed in. In ran until it was three or four feet deep, but only in the forward bulkhead compartment. Capt. Van Hook considered the entering of a protest quite unnecessary, and didn't protest. He carried the water and damaged hull through to New Orleans, and there repaired the hull. Van Hook believes in watertight compartments; he believes also in the liberal use of water by man internally, in order to avoid the condition sometimes called tight.

—Steamers are compelled to run the 220 feet span of the Newport bridge, the channel span being blocked up with a crane-boat at work on the remains of the coffer dam, which the falling of the water has rendered dangerous. The trestlework in the channel span has nearly all been taken down, and the work of removing the last coffer-dam will be commenced in a day or two. In a short time the channel span will be entirely free from obstructions, and open again to the passage of boats.

—There are lying on the bank of the river in South St. Louis 80,000 tons of Iron Mountain ore awaiting shipment to the Ohio river and Grand Tower.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of Thursday says: Mr. F. H. Lallance, river editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, left for Pittsburgh last night, to be gone a couple of weeks. For particulars see marriage notices in another column. We sympathize with him.

—The H. S. Turner arrived at Memphis Tuesday night, and has gone on the docks for repairs. She picked up a snag at Bruner's Landing, fifty miles below Vicksburg, and took two feet of water. The damages are light, and she enters protest at Memphis.

—The Kate Putnam will probably commence loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans in a day or two. Capt. Sam. Shuman, formerly of the Lorena, will command the Putnam, and Capt. James M. Vandergrift will be her clerk.

—Before steamboats were placed on our western rivers, W. J. Lowry, of Evansville, made two trips to New Orleans on flatboats, and returned on foot through the country to his home in Chillicothe, Ohio.

—The Sallie was raised last Wednesday morning by the Eckert, and will go on the docks at Mound City or St. Louis. The hole in her hull is twenty feet long.

—The pilot-house of the Evansville is haunted, as a spirit robed in white, was seen gliding from that vicinity a night or two ago.

—The Mountaineer is loading in the Kountz Line at St. Louis for Red river, in opposition to the Carter line.

The mother of the child lives at a tavern on Smithfield street, and on awaking yesterday morning found the babe dead. A verdict of death from natural causes was rendered.

Fire in Lawrenceville.—Last evening, about half-past nine o'clock, a fire broke out in a house on Forty-second street, Seventeenth ward, Lawrenceville, across from the Citizens' Passenger Railway stables. The house was a new one, and was not yet occupied. The fire caught from the grate, in which a strong fire was kept for the purpose of heating the rooms and drying the walls. Fortunately, it was discovered in time, and extinguished before material damage had been done.

Accident on the West Penn.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock an accident occurred on the West Penn Railroad, at Hett's Mills, about a mile and a half west of the Junction. A locomotive attached to four freight cars was coming west when the whole train was thrown from the track by a spike which some one had maliciously put into the frog of the switch, evidently for the purpose of throwing the cars off. Fortunately no one was hurt, although the regular trains on the road were delayed over three hours by the occurrence.

Runaway in Allegheny—Horse Killed.

Last evening about half-past five o'clock a team of horses attached to a heavy wagon became frightened just in front of the Mayor's office in Allegheny, and started off on a gallop up the street. A young man was riding a horse coming from the opposite direction and did not observe the team until it was too late to prevent a collision. He attempted to turn aside but failed, and the wheel of the wagon struck his horse in the side, knocking the animal down senseless. The young man, by some remarkable means, escaped unhurt, but the horse was injured to such an extent that it had to be shot about an hour afterward.

Anthracite Coal—Where to Get It.

Now that so many are using anthracite coal in preference to bituminous, in hot air furnaces, for cooking, and in offices, parlors and chambers, it will be interesting to know that a choice quality of it is kept by James M. Bingham, at 367 Liberty street, that his stock was purchased before the late advance in price, and he is thus enabled to supply his customers at the lowest rates ever current in this city. He is careful to screen every load before it leaves his yard, and seems determined to give such satisfaction to all who deal with him as will secure their continued confidence and patronage. Give him a trial.

Rowdyism—Cowardly Assault.

Thanksgiving night, at a late hour, as Mr. Lewis Vierheller was passing up Fifth avenue extension, he was suddenly attacked by three men who came out of a private alley near Tunnel street, and brutally beaten, one of them going so far as to cut him with a knife, inflicting a painful gash on the right shoulder. After amusing themselves until their victim was almost senseless, they left him lying in the street. Mr. Vierheller with considerable difficulty was enabled to reach his home, where he at present lies suffering from the abuse he received. He has no idea who his assailants were, or the reason for their cowardly assault.

Fight at a Ball.

There was a ball participated in by colored people on Thanksgiving night, held in the room over a bowling alley on Fifth avenue extension near Tunnel street. During the festivities they were interrupted by a row among some of the male attendants, in which one of them was cut with a knife across the bowels. The disturbance was then quieted down and the affair hushed up quietly. The wounded man, after receiving medical attention, was removed to his residence. The police were not called in, and it was impossible yesterday to ascertain the name of the victim or the exact extent of his injuries.

Cut With a Razor.

Wednesday evening a number of the disciples of Terpsichore assembled at Lutz & Waltz's hall, Seventh ward, Allegheny, to devote the evening to their favorite amusement. The festivities were in full blow about eleven o'clock which attracted the attention of a gang of rowdies who were passing at that time. They demanded admittance and were refused by the doorkeeper Adam Showers, when one of the young rascals drew a razor and cut him across the forehead, inflicting a gash into the bone. They then fled and Showers was taken to the residence of physician near at hand where his wound was dressed. No information as yet has been made.

Fire at an Oil Refinery.

Last night, about half past eleven o'clock, a slight fire occurred at Kirkpatrick's Oil Works at the foot of Forty-fourth street, Seventeenth ward, caused by the explosion of a still, partially filled with oil. The oil at once took fire, and the flames communicated to a condensing tank containing a small quantity of oil, partially refined. The employees at once set to work with the private hose attached to the works, while an alarm was also sounded to call out the Department. The engines in that district went out and in about half an hour the fire was extinguished, having been confined to the still and tank. Loss about $1,000, covered by insurance.

Allegheny Valley Railroad Extension.

It is very creditable to the management of the Allegheny Valley R. R., under Colonel Wm. Phillips and his Board of Directors, and a very emphatic endorsement by English capitalists of the wisdom and policy of the company in the matter of the further extension of their road eastward, that on Tuesday last, in the city of London, Mr. Andrew Carnegie negotiated $5,000,000 of the company's bonds on favorable terms. It would also appear from Mr. Carnegie's success in this instance, and from the fact of his having negotiated altogether in England over $12,000,000 of American securities, that his character for integrity and financial shrewdness has come to be appreciated in England as it has long been in his own country. With such officers and such agents, the future of the Allegheny Valley R. R. cannot fail to be onward, upward and prosperous.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

On Thursday evening the Westinghouse Air Brake Company gave their second annual Thanksgiving dinner to their employes. In compliance with invitations received, a crowd of about one hundred and fifty persons sat down at three long tables in the large dining hall of the Union Depot Hotel, at half past six, or thereabouts. We noticed among these Messrs. Bagaley and Pitcairn, officers of the company, Mr. Gormly, Mr. Welsh, foreman of the works, a large number of employes, and a few other invited gentlemen. The tables were bountifully spread, the bill of fare embracing oysters, fish, sweetbreads, poultry, venison, quail, salads, cakes, fruits, ices, jellies etc. There were no wines or intoxicating liquors, but plenty of good coffee; no speeches, but plenty of good music furnished during the whole dinner by Tuerge's band, and there also seemed to be plenty of cheerfulness and enjoyment, to say nothing of plenty of fine segars after dinner. Occasions of this sort must do much to promote kindly feelings between the employers and employes, and the example set by the officers of the Brake Company might well be followed by others of our great manufacturers.

Narrow Escape.

Yesterday afternoon about half-past four o'clock, the wife of Collector Thos. W. Davis, with her sister narrowly escaped death by the fall of a part of a scaffolding in front of Mellons new buildings now in course of erection opposite the Custom House. They were passing under it just as the workmen were engaged in hoisting one of the blocks of iron of which the front is composed. By some means the scaffolding just then gave way and the hoisting apparatus, iron and scaffolding came down with a crash.

Mrs. Davis at the instant, heard the crash at the top of the building and gave an almost involuntary start forward, which was just sufficient to save her life, as one of the heavy beams passed within half a foot of her position. It was so near that a part of the mortar upon it was splashed across her cloak. The ladies were rendered speechless by the fright but further than that happily were uninjured.

In this connection it might be well to call the attention of the contractor there to the fact that he is violating a city ordinance by not having a shop built over the sidewalk. In this case of course it would not have availed anything, but then there are often bricks and pieces of wood falling from the upper stories, any of which would be sufficient to seriously injure any person, struck. The ordinance should be complied with.

Library Lectured.

The lecture of Dr. Lord, in Library Hall on Thursday evening was listened to by a very fair audience. His subject was "Queen Elizabeth," and the lecture was a resume of the history of her reign, which embraced a period of about forty-five years, from the 17th of November, 1558, till the 24th of March, 1603. She [illegible] daughter of Henry VIII, and Ann [illegible] half-sister [illegible] Mary, ("Bloody Mary) [illegible] successor on [illegible] English throne. [illegible] VIII, and involved in debt. [illegible] sagacious rule (for he [illegible] sovereign and not as a woman) [illegible] deeply given to trade and commerce; there [illegible] and vival of literature; Sir Francis Drake [illegible] navigated the globe; those "wooden walls" the powerful navy—were built, which have been the glory of England; and the Protestant religion was firmly established. To Elizabeth, England is indebted for Protestant ascendency. He paid a high compliment to her ministers and privy counsellors, among whom were Sir Nicholas Bacon; Sir William Cecil, known as Lord Burleigh, who was her chief minister during the greater part of her reign; the Earl of Leicester; Earl of Essex, Lord Burkhurst and others. During her long reign of forty-five years she only received three millions of pounds sterling, or sixty thousand a year. (This is in striking contrast with the expense of the English crown and royal family at the present day.) During her reign there was a great improvement made in the style of architecture, which had previously been of the rudest kind, the Spanish Armada was destroyed, and England became prosperous. Although it contained nothing new to even an ordinary historian, the lecture was listened to with deep attention, and was delivered with considerable force and energy.

HYMENIAL.

A brilliant Wedding on Thanksgiving Day—The Marriage of an Iron City Belle to a Merchant of Memphis.

Several days ago we made reference to the fact that certain circles of society were all agog with excitement over the then promised fashionable marriage for Thanksgiving Day that was, so far as royal splendor and magnificent magnificence were concerned, to overshadow any affair of similar character that ever had occurred in this locality. Well, the day has come and gone and with it will long be cherished lively recollections of the nuptial ceremonies that with it too, have entered the past by those whose pleasure it was to participate at the happy and joyous blending together of two hearts to beat together as one in joy or sorrow through life to death. Early on Thursday morning, according to the injunction politely expressed on the neatly engraved, delicately tinted, fragrant wedding circulars awarded the happy selected guests, there left the Connellsville Railroad depot a large number of ladies and gentlemen on board an elegant special train for Alpsville, one of the neat and cosy towns on the Youghiogheny river, some distance above McKeesport, where the long talked of wedding was to result in a certainty and where before the altar the sacred engagement was to ripen into the reality of matrimony.

THE CONTRACTING PARTIES.

In our advance notice of the contemplated wedding we refrained from mentioning the names of the contracting parties, but now inasmuch as the event has passed into our local fashionable history, we feel that there is now no embargo on such publication. The bride was Miss Mollie, the accomplished and beautiful daughter of N. J. Bigley, Esq., one of our most extensive and wealthiest coal merchants, and the groom was Mr. J. A. J. Smith, a well to do druggist of Memphis, Tenn. The couple are both young and well mated so far as years are concerned. Originally we believe it was intended to celebrate the wedding ceremony in St. Paul's Cathedral, but as no seclusion whatever can be maintained in that vast edifice on such festal occasions it was finally concluded to hold it in the beautiful chapel erected at Alpsville, by the generosity of the bride's father. This arrangement was all the more pleasant since it afforded the guests a pleasant excursion, and besides the elegant and commodious country residence of Mr. Bigley is located on the edge of Alpsville, and it was especially prepared and decorated for the occasion.

THE CEREMONY.

As the train bearing the city guests reached the village of Alpsville the cheerful toned bell of the church rang out a merry welcome and hundreds of miners and their families clad in holiday attire as warmly welcomed the party, they taking apparently great interest in the marriage of the daughter of their kind-hearted and indulgent employer. After a brief rest the bridal party and all entered the church which had been converted into a perfect garden of exotic flowers and heartsome evergreens. The ceremony, so beautiful and impressive, was performed before the altar by Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec, assisted by a large number of priests. At its conclusion the officiating prelate delivered a very neat and practical address to the newly made man and wife, after which the customary greeting and congratulations took place. While those were going on our reporter made close observation of the gorgeous robes of the bride and the attending maids, but was lost for word out of the vocabulary of fashion to describe them. The bride was attired in a marvellously rich, heavy corded silk over which rested gracefully a real point lace overskirt here and there studded with modest orange blossoms. Her hair was luxuriantly plain and was crowned with a delicate wreath of orange buds. Fastened with a diamond clasp, a rich lace veil fell prettily over her shoulders. Her train was borne by two cherub-faced little girls dressed in white and wearing wreaths of flowers. The bridesmaides were dressed in almost similar manner to the bride. The groom and groomsmen appeared in full wedding costume. It is only due here to state that the bridal outfit entire was ordered from our popular dry goods dealers, Messrs. Moorhead & Carsten, No. 21 Fifth avenue, and in every respect afforded satisfaction.

After the congratulations were over Bishop Domenec and his attendants celebrated Pontificial High Mass with unusual pomp and ceremony. The music of the occasion was of high order, being afforded by the talented Misses McGraw, R. McGraw, Esq., and others from the city.

THE RECEPTION.

When the church services had concluded the wedding party repaired to the Bigley mansion, where a dinner party reception was held. The feast prepared was partaken of by fully one hundred couple and the very best of good cheer prevailed. In the evening the guests and the bridal party came to the city, the latter leaving for an extended tour in the east and the Canadas. Altogether the wedding was most brilliant and fashionable, and we wish that the young couple may never in life see less happy and enjoyable days than that Thanksgiving day which saw them made man and wife.

A PLEASANT WELCOME.

Thanksgiving at Mount Lebanon—Interesting Congregational Meeting.

The pleasant chapel of the United Presbyterian congregation at Mount Lebanon, Scott township, was the scene of a very pleasant episode on Thanksgiving morning. After the pastor, Rev. Mr. Boyd, had concluded the regular morning services, and dismissed the congregation, the members of the church remained and somewhat mysteriously organized a meeting by selecting Col. Wm. Espy as chairman. The object of the assemblage was then made known by Capt. John Gilfillan, who in a few eloquent remarks cordially welcomed the pastor home from his wedding tour, and in behalf of the congregation, extended a greeting to his estimable bride. The reverend gentleman—though always the recipient of the utmost kindness from his parishioners—was surprised and touched with this new expression of love, but succeeded in returning his grateful acknowledgment in fitting words.

Other speakers were then called upon, in response to which Mr. McElroy made a few remarks, and was followed by Colonel Espy, who happily touched upon the past and present of their pastor's service among them, saying:

More than fifty years ago the lamented Webster stood on Plymouth Rock and delivered his memorable oration in commemoration of the landing of the Pilgrims, which had taken place two hundred years before. He drew from history, but largely on his imagination, in depicting their trials and sufferings for conscience sake. It may be proper for us to-day, sir, to take a glance at our history since you came amongst us. A little more than fourteen years ago, when you appeared amongst us for the first time, you were but a stripling of a boy, young in years and young in the ministry. A little less than fourteen years ago you became our settled pastor. Since that time many changes have taken place, and great events have transpired within that time. Our country has been shaken from centre to circumference. A great internal war has been waged; our fathers, our brothers and our sons have fallen victims to bloody treason. But we have conquered the foe, and we are again in peace and increased prosperity. Great changes have also occurred among us as a congregation. Those who were your advisers when you became our pastor have nearly all gone to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns," viz: Messrs. Kerr, Frew and Henry. Others who were added to the Session after you came here—the lamented Kelso and Stewart—have gone. Many others have also gone. You have been called upon to administer consolation to the dying, and to comfort the widow and the orphan. You have visited us in health and in sickness. You have rejoiced with us when we rejoiced, and mourned with us when we mourned. In reference to your domestic relations, you have had many years of sweet comfort, and have passed through sore affliction. But our relations as pastor and people have been pleasant. Scarcely a ruffle has been on the stream. The past we can read, but we can only look into the future in anticipation, trusting that the past, so far as we are concerned as pastor and people, is but an evidence of what the future will be. We bid you welcome in your new relation. And now, sir, allow me to say a few words to her whom you have selected as your partner.

Madam: We are here to congratulate you in your new relation. We welcome you to the side of our pastor. We invite you to our homes, and with your husband, our pastor, to partake with us at our domestic boards. We ask you to rejoice with us when we rejoice, and to mourn with us when we mourn. We welcome you, as our pastor's wife, to a place in the church, and to commune with us at our Elder Brother's table. And may you as our pastor's wife, be as our pastor, and we as the people, continue to live together as long as time with us shall last, and may we smooth each other's path down through the journey of life; and when time with us shall be no more, may we meet in that better land beyond the skies. We again bid you welcome.

At the close the people withdrew to their homes with a feeling that the bonds of friendship between themselves and their pastor were greatly strengthened by the pleasant memories of the occasion.

This congregation is one of the most flourishing of any in our rural districts. They are now worshipping in the chapel of Mount Lebanon Academy, which has been their headquarters since the destruction of their building in June last. They have commenced the erection of a new church, however, and have completed the basement story. When finished the building will be two stories high and will, it is expected, have cost $20,000.

OIL AGAIN.

Female Servant Terribly Burned.

Another dreadful case of burning by careless using of oil, occurred about seven o'clock yesterday morning. A Mrs. Clark, a widow, employed as servant in the house of Dr. Rossean, corner of Penn street and Garrison alley, was engaged in kindling the kitchen fire, and in order to make it burn more readily, she poured oil upon it from a large can filled with the liquid. The result was what might have been confidently expected. The oil in the can ignited and a terrible explosion followed instantly. The contents of the can were scattered in liquid fire all over the room. The carpet, the walls, the ceiling and all the articles in the room were burned and blackened by the fire. The poor woman herself was wrapped in flames in a moment. Her clothing was saturated with the oil from her head to her feet, and of course burned fiercely. She ran screaming out of the room, and some parties, attracted by her cries, ran to her assistance. As soon as possible a blanket was thrown over her and the flames extinguished, but not in time to save her from dreadful injuries. On examination it was found that the extent of her injuries was terrible, flesh, skin and nails dropping off piecemeal. At last accounts she was still living, in a condition of great suffering, but is not expected to recover. She was about forty years of age.

Everything passed amongst[illegible], and the dance was at its heighth [illegible] row was midnight some trouble ensued [illegible] continued [illegible] the attendants, and a general [illegible] Wm. Coffee, [illegible]. The victim [illegible] respective removed to the house of a physician [illegible] and his wounds dressed, after which he was taken to his residence in Temperanceville. He is a young man and a coal digger by trade. His injuries are quite severe, though no serious consequences are apprehended.

Yesterday his brother, Israel Clare, made information before Mayor Brush against Coffee for felonious assault. The accused was arrested and is held in the lockup, awaiting a hearing.

THANKSGIVING AT DIXMONT.

Parlor Theatricals—Pleasant Supper Party.

The happy recurrence of Thanksgiving was commemorated in a very pleasant and enjoyable way, at Dixmont, and in a manner which rendered the occasion one of interest, not only to those of the inmates, who were permitted to mingle in the exercises, but to a number of invited ladies and gentlemen from the city. It will be remembered that reference was heretofore made to the entertainments which are now held weekly at the institution, and are participated in by the attendants and milder patients, and which have come to be quite a feature of the Hospital-life. Already a number of these "parlor theatricals" have been given and with the most beneficial results, to the patients who engage in them, so much so as to entirely justify the experiment and establish it upon a permanent footing. Feeling thus assured of the success of this new idea Dr. Reed concluded to exhibit its practical workings to the friends of the institution, and at the same time render Thanksgiving at the Hospital, an occasion that would be of happiness to all.

In response to invitations—the outgrowth of this design—a number of ladies and gentlemen visited Dixmont on Thanksgiving night, and were hospitably received by Mr. and Mrs. Reed, who had made every preparation for their enjoyment. The visitors were assembled in a neat little room fitted up as a miniature theatre, in which the performance was given. The exercises were principally conducted by the patients of the hospital, the milder ones, who at intervals are allowed the privileges of the place.

The programme consisted of a farce, "The Disgusted Dutchman," a comedy "Decently Cool," and a concluding medley by the minstrels, of humorous and sentimental ballads. The entertainment was plentifully interspersed with instrumental music by the orchestra, which is regularly organized and produced melodies, of which no amateur band might feel ashamed. The performers went through the exercises with spirit and an appreciation that seemed remarkable. Throughout they manifested no other feeling than that of persons in whom reason had full control, and the manner in which everything was conducted, evidenced that the matter had been a subject of study and reason with them, which gave indications of the most hopeful character. The entertainment closed in about two hours, and left the visitors thoroughly satisfied of the practical workings of the system, which combines discipline with the culture of the long lost reasoning faculties—which unites amusement with the other aids employed at the hospital to bring about the restoration of the intellect at the hospital. At the conclusion of the entertainment the patients quietly retired to their quarters and affairs in the hospital settled down to their usual quiet again.

The visitors were now treated to another agreeable surprise and supplement to the evenings' entertainment, in an elegant supper which had been prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Reed, than whom none are more versed in the mysteries of the culinary art. The feast was partaken of with a relish that attested in the best possible way its excellence, and was in the highest degree complimentary of the fair hostess' skill. The remainder of the time until the late train, was agreeably whiled away by the guests, for whose enjoyment the kind host and hostess were indefatigable in effort, and whose genial hospitality lent an additional pleasure to the evening. The occasion was one of genuine enjoyment to all, and formed an agreeable close to a day of general happiness.

TWO RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

Man Killed at the Transfer Station—Wagon Demolished and Two Persons Seriously Injured in Allegheny.

We have this morning to record two railroad accidents of a serious character, one of which was, and the other will perhaps yet be attended with fatal results.

The first occurred on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Lynch, a Ft. Wayne conductor, was aiding in shifting cars at the transfer station, near the Pennsylvania outer depot and was standing on the front of a car, when he was jolted off, and ten or twelve cars run over him, cutting him almost to pieces. Deceased resided in Middle alley near Samson street, Allegheny.

Coroner West held an inquest on the body and the jury rendered a verdict "that the deceased came to his death through the negligence of the Railroad Company in running their trains at a faster speed than allowed by law."

The other occurred about seven o'clock yesterday morning at the Chestnut street crossing of the West Penn Railroad. Mrs. Koenig and her son, aged about fifteen years, started from their home at Girty's Run, for the purpose of attending the Allegheny market. They were riding in a one-horse wagon, and they attempted to cross the railroad, a regular crossing had been established at that place. Just as the horse had cleared the track the wagon was struck by a freight train, which was backing rapidly and of which no warning had been given. The wagon was struck with such force that it was shattered to splinters, the hubs and ties being the large t parts that could be found. The occupants were hurled from their seats. Mrs. Koenig fell some distance from the track, receiving very serious injuries. Blood issued from her nose and mouth, and it is feared that she has sustained severe internal injury. The lad was carried along with the wreck for some distance before the train could be checked. His body was severely lacerated, and one of his legs were so badly fractured that amputation below the knee was considered necessary. The parties were removed to a house near by, where they are now lying in critical condition. The horse was very little injured.

The Grand Central Hotel.

This superb, colossal structure, on Broadway, New York, is still attracting the attention of the press of the country. It seems to be an acknowledged rendezvous for travelers from every clime. A visitor's glance at the multitudes that daily and nightly throng its spacious halls and ample exchanges, will confirm the fact that it really finds accommodation for nearly two thousand guests.

In keeping with its size and splendor, H. Lyman Powers, its proprietor, has conducted it with untiring energy, upon a scale of hospitable liberality hitherto unknown in the history of hotel management.

Its sudden innovation upon the exhorbitant rates charged by other first-class hotels—adopting prices from one to two dollars less per day—has been the subject of various editorial notices throughout the country, and we heartily add our concurrence in this much-needed reform. The Grand Central is generally found to be the New York residence of our leading public men, and a majority of visiting foreigners. Indeed, the fame of the "Grand Central" at home has "gone abroad." It is what Victor Hugo, in Paris, would call "Une Grande Palais Royale," and visitors will find what has been said of it is true.

POLITICAL.

CARD FROM B. W. MORGAN.

The "Morgan-Brush" Interview.

MR. EDITOR:—I have thus far studiously refrained from any notice of the slanders, daily circulated concerning me by the opposition press. But I deem it a duty I owe to myself and friends to briefly state the facts touching an interview with Mayor Brush at his office on Thursday last, relative to a certain letter received by him, and purporting to be written by one "JOHN D. THOMP—" of the Twenty-first ward, Pittsburgh.

This letter or document, as I understand it, charges me with the grossest public defamation of Mr. Brush and certain members of his family, and also with assaulting Mr. Patterson, his clerk, in the same style, while canvassing in that ward. I called at the Mayor's office, on Thursday, to ascertain if the Mayor had found out the real author of the letter, or had succeeded in getting a clue to him. In reply to my inquiry, he said he had not as yet done so, but he believed it to be true. I then pronounced the statements in the letter to be in every particular false, and the author of the letter a base liar and scoundrel; as I now publicly brand him so. At this language, expressive of the natural indignation I felt, the Mayor appeared to take offence, and I left the office of my own accord. I had a conveyance in waiting to go out in search of the author, but neither the Mayor nor his clerk seemed disposed to accompany me for the purpose of confronting him. For the truth of what is here stated, I respectfully refer the public to Mr. James Montooth and Mr. Howell Jones, who were present and heard what occurred.

I now state that the most diligent search has failed to discover such an individual as John D. Thomp—or Thompson in the Twenty-first ward, and that the whole document is a forgery of the clumsiest description, and the name signed to it is bogus, and that the statements therein, one and all, are falsehood out of the whole cloth. My only surprise is that Mayor Brush could so readily be imposed upon by such a palpable fraud.

In conclusion, if I can obtain sufficient legal evidence to convict this anonymous libeler, I shall, whether elected or not, promptly hand him over to the tender mercies of the law for the punishment he so richly deserves.

Respectfully,

B. W. MORGAN.

Ex-Mayor Blackmore's Record.

We print the following damaging record made by ex-Mayor Blackmore whilst Chief Magistrate of the city three years ago. It shows clearly what has been charged against him, viz: that he remitted fines and discharged culprits to such an alarming extent as to justify the strictures made against him. It proves him totally unfitted to fill the Mayoralty chair, as his leniency to convicted criminals are wholly inexplicable.

J. F. Stark.

The annexed Bill in Equity was filed at No. 369 of September Term, 1870. The allegations were not denied by Mr. Stark, and under the Equity rules everything not denied is taken as admitted. It will be seen that Mr. Joseph Abel, the well known druggist, swears to the truth of the allegations, which we give below, with the decree of the court, without other comment at this time.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, sitting in equity. Joseph Abel, plaintiff, and Julius F. Stark defendant.

To the Honorable Judges of said court:

Your orator complains and says:

1. That on or about the 24th day of November, A. D., 1866, your orator did enter into a co-partnership with the defendant, Julius F. Stark, for the purpose of carrying on the banking business in the city of Pittsburgh according to an article of agreement, made and executed between them, a copy whereof is attached hereto.

2. That by the terms of said co-partnership, your orator was to pay in as capital stock the sum of $7,000, and the said J. F. Stark was to pay in the sum of $3,500. The business was to be conducted exclusively by the said J. F. Stark, who was to keep full and correct books of account, and to make out a correct balance sheet every three months, and to submit such balance sheets to your orator for examination.

For his services in conducting the management of the business said Stark was to receive the sum of $1,800 per annum, to be paid him out of the profits, if there should be any, and the remaining profits, if any, were to be divided—two-thirds to your orator and one-third to the said Stark. The business was to continue three years from its commencement.

3. That said copartnership expired on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1869, by limitation.

4. That ever since such expiration of said copartnership your orator has been urging the said J. F. Stark to settle up and render an account of the business, but that he has never rendered any satisfactory account of the same.

5. That after many fruitless efforts on the part of your orater to get a settlement of the business, said Stark did at last, on or about the 24th day of May, 1870, send your orator a very short and imperfect statement, a copy of which is appended to this petition, and did also send your orator what purports to be the ledger and journal of the said copartnership, which are now in your orator' possession, while all the other books, such as cash book, &c., which should have been kept by the said Stark, are still in his possession, if he ever kept any such.

6. That the books have not been kept in a correct, proper or business-like manner by the said Stark, but that they are full of errors and imperfect entries, that cannot be understood without explanation.

7. That said Stark has never (since a very short time after the commencement of the partnership) had $3,500 of capital in the business, as by the article of co-partnership he was bound to have.

8. That said Stark has erroneously credited himself with the sum of $5,400 for salary, while yet, according to the statement made by him, there was no profit, but only loss, so that by the terms of the co-partnership he is not entitled to make any such charge.

9. That according to the statement made by the said Stark, all the capital stock put into the business has been lost, except about $100, which the said Stark now holds in his possession, while your orator charges and verily believes that upon a fair and correct statement of the partnership accounts the said Stark will be found to be largely indebted to your orator.

10. Your orator therefore prays for equitable relief.

That an account be taken of all the partnership dealings and transactions.

That a decree of your Honorable Court may be given in favor of your orator and against the said J. F. Stark for such amount as he may be found, upon a correct statement of an account, to be indebted to your orator. And:

That your Honors grant unto your orator such other and further relief in the premises as justice will require.

Allegheny County, ss:

I, Joseph Abel, the above named complainant, do depose and say that the foregoing bill of complaint and the allegations therein contained are true as I verily believe.

JOS. ABEL.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 8th day of July, A. D. 1870.

JACOB H. WALTER.

And now, August 27, 1870. This cause came on to be heard at this term, it appearing to the Court that the defendant has had due and timely notice thereof, and said defendant not appearing, the case was argued by the plaintiff's counsel, and thereon upon consideration thereof it is ordered adjudged and decided as follows:

That the bill filed by the plaintiff, and all the allegations therein set forth, be taken as true against the defendant and E. B. Todd, Esq., is hereby appointed master in chancery to make and state an account and report the amount due from the defendant to the plaintiff.

BY THE COURT.

EIGHTEENTH WARD.

A meeting of the citizens was held in the Eighteenth ward, Thursday night, to take some action in reference to the rumors of "colonization," which have been freely circulated in that section recently.

Mr. C. W. Lewis was called upon to preside, and after a formal organization had thus been effected, the following letter was read:

PITTSBURGH, November 27, 1871.

Captain H. Blackstone, Chief Engineer A. V. R. R. Co.

DEAR SIR: Having been absent in the east for some time past on Company's business, as you are aware, on my return home I find, or hear it rumored, that the roadmaster or employees in your department have been moving, or in other words "colonizing" in a certain districts, for the purpose of accomplishing certain results at the ensuing municipal election. I hope such is not the case, but should you, on inquiry, find it so, please take measures to have it stopped immediately. If the work on the road in that locality is not absolutely necessary at this time, send back any force that may have been recently brought in until the election is over.

Yours truly, &c., W. PHILLIPS,
President A. V. R. R. Co.

Some general discussion then ensued upon the subject which the meeting had been called to consider, after which on motion the chair appointed the following committe: S. C. McCandless, C. W. Lewis, William Francis, Samuel Carothers, Michael Cortello, George Burdell, Andrew Lyons, who retired, and after a short consultation returned with a series of resolutions setting forth that sixty persons had applied for registry in two weeks; that one-half were not bona fide residents of the ward, but boarders at hotels, &c.; that all of these persons were employees on the Valley Road; that the citizens therefore resented the outrage upon their rights and called upon all to rebuke the insult at the polls; asking all outsiders to refrain from voting and let the citizens of the ward decide the matter, and providing for the appointment of a committee of five to watch and prevent "colonization."

The resolutions after some discussion were adopted by a vote of twenty-one to nine.

On motion the following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved, That we are pleased to hear from the order of Colonel Phillips to Capt. Blackstone, that he is not responsible for the large number of persons who have come into the ward, and we request him to extend the same order to all departments of the road.

On motion, adjourned.

Sixteenth Ward Correspondence.

J. J. ALBEITZ, ESQ., Secretary of Enterprise Insurance Company, City—Dear Sir:—As we are competitors for the office of Select Council as representatives of the Sixteenth ward of this city, I deem it important to the interests of the people of the Sixteenth ward that the man best suited to represent their varied wants and interests should receive their support at the ballot-box on next Tuesday, December 5, 1871. To enable them to make their decisions intelligently, without any outside influence being brought upon them, directly or indirectly, to divert their opinions from their own individual and collective interests, I would therefore most respectfully invite you to meet the people of the first precinct of the Sixteenth ward at their school-house on next Saturday evening at half-past seven o'clock, and those of the second precinct at the Bloomfield school-house on next Monday evening at the same hour, to compare our individual official records in our city councils during the present year, and lay before them our respective claims for their support. I would be pleased to receive your answer to the communication in writing by the bearer, Mr. Henry Nicholls.

With respects, I am, sir, yours truly.

R. H. SMITH.

Pittsburgh, November 29, 1871.

To this J. J. Albeitz, Esq., sent the following reply, verbally:

J. J. Albeitz, Esq., told me, in Alderman O'Donnell's office, that he did not recognize R. H. Smith in this matter.

J. H. Jones, Esq., late candidate for city treasurer, was present at the time.

3 HENRY NICHOLLS

MESSRS. EDITORS: We notice by a meeting of the Republicans of the First ward of the suggestion of D. R. Speer, "of the firm of Heath & Speer," for one of the School Directors—a gentleman whom we think well worthy and competent to fill the posision, "which is a very important one."

We can say of him that he has taught school for three consecutive years, several years ago, being chosen by the same Board each year. This proves that he gave entire satisfaction. He then came into the city and engaged in business without one dollar, "for what he earned teaching he spent in continuing his education," but through the kindness of Judge Heath, with whom he is now connected in business, and his own untiring energy he owes his start in life.

He has accepted the offer, "of which he is very thankful for," and no doubt, if he is elected, will give it its proper attention to the best of his ability. He has been an earnest, faithful worker and supporter of the Republican party all his life, and it is hoped that the Republicans of the First ward will rally to his support this day at the primary election, which will be held between the hours of 3 and 6 P. M. FIRST WARD.

FIFTEENTH WARD.

SELECT COUNCIL—Gen. A. L. Pearson.
COMMON COUNCIL—Dr. L. F. Arensberg, Stephen Dietrich, Wm. M. Kim, Wm. Ramsey.
SCHOOL DIRECTORS—Thos. D. Keller, M. Neckerman.
JUDGE OF ELECTION—Wm. Ramsey.
INSPECTOR—Wm. Fiaccus.
RETURN INSPECTOR—Jno. A. Kurtz.
ASSESSOR—G. W. Ronshausen.
CONSTABLE—Jno. A. Kurtr.

Second Ward, Allegheny.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Guyan M. Irwin, who, for the past two years, has filled the position of Alderman of his native ward, will be a candidate to-day for renomination. Mr. Irwin declines to enter the political arena with his competitors and solicit the citizens individually for their votes, but places himself entirely upon his record. That he has discharged his duties satisfactorily cannot be gain-said, and it is a fact well-known to all that he has added dignity to a position that has been disgraced by many incompetent men. He is a property holder, and a gentleman of probity and good understanding, as his connection for many years with the city press bears witness. The citizens of the Second ward would honor themselves by voting for Guyan M. Irwin for Alderman of the Second ward.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—At the Second ward, Allegheny, caucus meeting, held at the school house Tuesday evening, Mr. T. F. Grubbs, the grocery merchant, was proposed for Common Council. We are glad to know that such men as Mr. Grubbs, who has never dabbled in politics, and is honest and capable of filling the position, are candidates, and we feel assured, if the Republican voters of the ward will vote for his nomination on Saturday, he will give entire satisfaction. Go and give him a lift. We want business men in Councils.

SECOND WARD.

FOR COMMON COUNCIL:

T. F. GRUBBS,

Of the Second Ward, Allegheny;

Subject to the decision of the primary meeting, to be held on Saturday.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Permit me to call the attention of the First ward Republicans to the name of our old Republican friend, John T. Fitzsimmons, who presents himself as a candidate for Common Council. Mr. Fitzsimmons is known by every citizen of the ward as an honest, upright, hard-working man, well qualified for the position, and it is due to him that he be one of the nominees. I hope the Republicans of this ward will see that he is fairly dealt with.

FIRST WARD CITIZEN.

ROBES AND FURS.

All the ladies, misses and children are anxiously looking forward to the approach of the holiday's, their hearts full of anticipated delight at the presents that seldom fail to come at Christmas. But we doubt if there is any one, of whatever age or sex, who could be made happier than by the gift of a set of furs. They are pleasant, serviceable and appropriate. The large and elegant stock now on hand at William Fleming & Co.'s, cannot fail to meet the appropriation of purchasers, and they cordially invite and examination of the same by the public at large. Their assortment of Ladies and Misses' Furs embrace, in part, Hudson Bay Sable, Mink Sable, Alaska Mink, German Fitch, Siberian Squirrel, &c., together with an unusually attractive stock of Buffalo Robes, Fox Robes, Affghans, Blankles, &c., for gentlemen. It is an established fact Messrs. William Fleming & Co. sell all classes of goods in their line at from fifteen to twenty per cent. lower than they can be purchared at any other house. Call and examine the stock, and be satisfied of the truth of this statement.

By the exercse of industry, enterprise and honesty, they have built up a trade that has placed them in the front rank of business, until they are now acknowledged to be the largest fur dealers west of Philadelphia. Of course, such superior facilities as theirs enable them to greatly undersell all others. Try them.

THREE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

Where? Why and How?

In these days of progress and refinement when it is regarded as an essential, in every family, both rich and poor, to have either a piano or organ, it becomes a question of great importance to know where to buy an instrument to the best advantage, that is to get the best article for the least money. We answer unhesitatingly, S. Hamilton & Co's, New Piano and Organ House, 51 Fifth avenue, is unquestionably the best, for the following reasons: 1st. Because they will not sell you a worthless article, as they are young men, who feel that their future success in business depends on their guarding their reputation with a jealous care, and as they now enjoy a honestly earned reputation for fair dealing and integrity they will not sell any new instrument they cannot fully guarantee (in writing). Second—Because they can sell you an instrument cheaper, and on easier and more accomodating terms, than any other house in the city. We will just name two reasons why they can sell cheaper: First, as a single item of expense, their rent is less than one-third that of any other first class music house in the city, while their motto, "quick sales and small profits," will show that in the last nine months their sales have not been exceeded by the oldest houses in the city. An additional reason why S. Hamilton & Co. is the best, is the perfect assurance people have of quality and character of such well-known instruments as the Decker & Barnes, Patent Pin Block Pianos, Craner & Co., and Bradford & Co. Parlor Gem Pianos and the Taylor & Farley Organs, whose celestial voicing has given them the first place among Reed Organs. Also George Woods & Co.'s Organs. How to buy one of these elegant instruments is a question that has been answered to the satisfaction of hundreds who have bought of S. H. & Co., and if you will just let them know about how much you can spare as a payment down, and how much per month you can depend upon being suited in an instrument, both as to price and terms.

Every instrument fully warranted to give satisfaction. Old instruments taken in exchange for new ones.

Every Disease Has Its Remedy.

Upon this broad fact is founded the whole art and science of medicine.

That every disease has its curable stage, under proper treatment, there can be no doubt.

That they have their incurable stage, under any treatment, may be equally true.

The curable period is during the early part of the disease, of course. The incurable being the advanced condition—the last stage.

To show the precise nature, extent and locality of the disease is of the first importance in the treatment of any case.

This is precisely the reason given by Drs. Oldshue, of Pittsburgh, for bringing into requisition the Microscope, Test-tube, Urinometer, and all the Chemical apparatus for the scientific examination of the urine in all chronic and complicated cases.

The long afflicted have not been slow to appreciate these scientific aids, and the consequence is, their office is one continued throng of patients, from all parts of the country, seeking the advantage of this skill in diagonis.

A knowledge of the appropriate remedy, however, is quite important, as without the remedy no advantage would be gained by knowing the disease.

Every disease has its remedy. This is verified in the fact that different medicines spend their action upon different parts of the human system.

As each particular disease spends its principal baneful action upon a certain organ or tissue of the body, according to its peculiar nature, so each particular remedy spends its medicinal action upon a certain organ or tissue, according to its medicinal qualities.

Having a knowledge of the true nature of the case, as also of the appropriate remedy, the next matter of importance is its proper preparation and application.

This should be carefully attended to, and, as far as practicable, all medicines should be examined by the physician before being put into the hands of the patient or nurse.

This is done in the office of Drs. Oldshue, before mentioned.

All their medicines are compounded and their prescriptions filled by their own special direction and under their own supervision.

No medicines are passed from their prescriptions but through their hands.

Ladies need not pore over the fashions in the magazines, and in so-called fashion letters, nor so indiscriminately entrust their dress arrangements to the modiste, so long as there is such an establishment as Julien Morrow's, No. 73 Market street, where they can make a choice of the fancy articles of trimmings and notions, more difficult to get but more important, which at this house are always in store and of the very latest fashion. FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.

Two Horses Attached to a Carriage Run Away—The Vehicle Upset—One of the Occupants Injured.

Last evening about six o'clock a runaway accident of a serious nature occurred on Grant street. It seems that a coal wagon drawn by three horses, by some carelessness of the driver, collided with a carriage at the corner of Webster avenue and Grant street. The driver of the carriage was knocked from his seat, when the horses attached to his vehicle started off on a gallop. The occupants were Mr. Maloney, his wife and child. They were powerless to stop the horses, and the animals kept on along Grant street until they came in contact with some of the building material in front of Jones' new law building, near the corner of Fourth avenue. By this the carriage was upset, and the occupants tumbled promiscuously into the street—the horses being brought up standing by the shock. Several persons in the vicinity at once ran to render assistance, and extricated the three persons from the ruins, when it was found that Mr. Maloney had suffered a fracture of his right leg. The others, beyond a great fright were not injured. They were all taken to the St. Nicholas Hotel when medical attendance was procured and afterward, all were taken home.

The driver was also run over by one of the wheels of the carriage and somewhat bruised but not very seriously injured. On all sides it was miraculous escape from death.

POLITICAL.

☞ TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

On TUESDAY, DECEMBER FIFTH, you will elect for the term of three years a Mayor, Treasurer and City Controller. In view of the well-known ascendancy of the Republican party in this community it would seem unnecessary to remind you of your duty as citizens and the obligations which devolve upon you to support by votes and influence the candidates who have been placed in nomination as the exponents of your principles. The base attempt now being made to defeat our candidate for Mayor and to elevate to the Chief Magistracy of this city a man always identified with our political opponents seems to demand notice. Under the flimsy guise of an "ANTI-RING," "Independent" or "Citizens" candidate, a life-long Democrat who clung to the desperate fortunes of his party during the entire rebellion and who to this hour has never faltered in its support, save when he has furled the banner of the party that he might more readily win a partisan victory, again seeks the highest municipal office in your gift. Your votes are to be purloined, if possible, by the paltry devices of political strategy and the executive control of this great Republican city, with its varied manufacturing and commercial interests is to pass for three years into the hands of the Democrats. With an audacity that cannot but provoke a smile of derision these followers of a so-called Democracy, whose Chiefs and Sachems have just been thrust from power in the first city of the Union by an indignant people for their unblushing rascality and peculation, here, in Pittsburgh, don the robes of civic virtue and strut upon our streets as examplars of political honesty and the opponents of "Rings!" While we, as Republicans, may be amused by the antics of these imposters, let us rebuke at the polls the insult they would thus put upon our intelligence and discernment.

MR. BLACKMORE'S SUPPORTERS.

In support of the fact that Mr. Blackmore is recognized by the faithful as the candidate of the Democratic party, it need only be stated that the Democratic City Executive Committee met on Wednesday, 15th inst., at the St. Charles Hotel, and unanimously resolved to make no nomination, but to support Mr. Blackmore as the man of their choice for the Mayoralty. The Pittsburgh Post has also been filled with sensational falsehoods and atrocious calumnies on Mr. Morgan, alleging that he intended having the election held at the City Hall, instead of at the usual polling places in the different wards; and that he also was using his influence as your candidate to open the doors of the Western Penitentiary to enlist recruits to his standard, by procuring the pardon of convicted felons incarcerated there. It would be astounding, indeed, if the Republican party at this day, and in the light of recent events, should conclude to resort to the desperate tactics of Tammany Hall to carry a municipal election! These weak and preposterous inventions of the enemy serve only to disclose their deadly malice and the importance they attach to the present contest. We are on the eve of a Presidential campaign the results of which will effect the destinies of our country for all coming time, and if the Republican party is successful, as we all believe and hope, the sad experience of the past will not have been in vain. At such a moment it behooves us to avoid even the appearance of wavering and to rally in unbroken phlanx in defense of our principles and in support of our candidates.

A LITTLE REVIEW.

Aside from weighty political considerations, candor compels your committee to state that the time during which Mr. Blackmore acted as Mayor failed to develop his fitness for that important trust. During his official term thousands of dollars of fines and penalties publicly imposed were privately "remitted," and the offenders thus escaped the punishment due their crimes. An examination of his official record shows that thousands of dollars were thus lost to the city treasury, and that offenders were daily turned loose and "discharged," unwhipped of justice! The scenes of disorder and turbulence which marked his reign cannot but be well remembered by the public, and we need only now recall them to your notice. It is, perhaps, a curious illustration of the better instincts of our common nature that these reminders of Mr. Blackmore's mistaken leniency appear, even yet, to strongly cherish a sentiment of gratitude in his behalf.

MR. MORGAN'S RECORD.

The Republican candidate for Mayor, B. W. Morgan, deserves and should receive your cordial and earnest support at the polls. A native of Pittsburgh, without the advantage of inherited wealth, he has filled with credit to himself various positions of honor and trust with admitted fidelity and ability. Having an honorable record as a citizen and one also to which he may point with pride as a soldier in the late war, as borne out by the testimonials of Union officers of high rank, his comrades in arms, he is entitled not only to your suffrages, but to a generous and enthusiastic support. Nominated for the office of Chief Executive of the city by the Republican party, after a struggle for that high honor of unusual warmth, your Committee cannot for a moment believe that you will permit his defeat to be accomplished by the arts of a selfish demagoguism. If elected, he will bring to the discharge of his duties, administrative ability, a due sense of the responsibilities of the station, and a resolve to honestly and inflexibly abide by his oath of office.

THE TREASURERSHIP.

Mr. C. L. Magee, the candidate for City Treasurer, is eminently fitted for that position. For a long time chief clerk in the office of the City Treasurer, already familiar with its financial affairs, and an ardent Republican, we bespeak for him your most active exertions in his behalf.

The supporters of Mr. Blackmore for Mayor have recently put forward for this office a Mr. Stark in opposition to the regular Republican nominee. This attempt to sugar-coat the Democratic candidate with a very weak solution of Republicanism cannot impose upon any one.

THE CONTROLLER.

Mr. McGowan, City Controller, needs no encomium from us. Faithful and capable, a fine type and representative of the intelligent workingman, at home alike in the workshop or when clad in the robes of office and charged with responsible duties, no better or purer man is needed to guard the city expenditures. Republicans of Pittsburgh the Disseminters of the "Anti-Ring" and other independent schools, count largely on your apathy and indifference; indeed they rely mainly upon this sort of negative support to achieve success, and to sieze for three years upon the administration of the affairs of your city. We conjure you, therefore, one and all to go to the Polls on the 5th day of December next and as citizens valuing the high privilege of participating in the government of our city, now expanding into a great metropolis, to vote for the candidates of that party with which its prosperity is identified, and confide the interests of Pittsburgh to its protecting care and keeping.

ROBERT C. ELLIOTT,
Chairman City Executive Committee.
JOHN D. FLEMING, M. F. EGAN, W. J. DIEHL, Secretaries.
